15TH YEAR. NO 215.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, FEB. 20, 1900.

TWO CENTS

CRONJE SURROUNDED

Such Report Current in House of Commons.

CABINET OFFICIAL AUTHORITY.

Wyndham Would Only Say News Received Was Satisfactory—French Reported Between the Boers and Bloemfontein.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The war office announced that it had nothing further for publication from South Africa.

In the lobbies of the house of commons, however, it was rumored that General Cronje's army was surrounded, that General French had got between the Boer forces and Bloemfontein and that he was only awaiting reinforcements to close in on the enemy.

No confirmation of this rumor was obtainable, although the general idea was that the government had received important dispatches.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A member of the cabinet told H. W. Lacy that the war office had received a telegram announcing that General Cronje is hopelessly surrounded. Mr. Wyndham was beset by anxious members of the house, but would only reply that the government's only news was extremely satisfactory. This explanation of the government withholding good news is more confirmation and more details are awaited.

The situation as disclosed by correspondents over the Free State border is tantalizing to the public expectation. The elementary facts are that the Boers are trekking eastward toward Bloemfontein with slow moving baggage trains, and that they are pursued by Lord Kitchener, with General Kelly-Kenny's division. General MacDonald, with the Highlanders, made a forced march to the Koodoos Rand ford, and on Sunday pushed 20 miles eastward. General French left Kimberley Saturday, going east along the Modder river. General Kitchener is trying to outmarch and outflank the Boers, thus checking their retreat, if possible, and driving them back into the hands of MacDonald and French.

The war office message communicated to Mr. Lacy seems to indicate that Lord Kitchener has either got ahead of the Boers or is about to realize his plan, and that the war office awaits a decisive result.

Meanwhile, Commandant Delarey, with the Boers from Colesberg, is hanging onto the right flank of the British pursuing column, seeking to delay their movement and so to assist the Boer wagon trains to escape.

Students of topography think the Boers will hardly risk a fight until they get into the rough country, north of Bloemfontein.

GEN. BULLER HOLDS HLANGWANE HILL.

Boers Retreated After the British Captured Monte Cristo—Managed to Carry Their Guns.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The Chieveley correspondent of The Daily News, telegraphing Feb. 19, said:

"We now occupy all the hills to the right of Colenso, on this side of the Tugela, including Hlangwane, which the Boers evacuated last night (Sunday)."

"This capture of Hlangwane hill is of great strategical importance, as the hill commands the flank of the Boer defenses at Colenso. A successful advance and the recapture of the railway may be expected."

The Daily Mail had the following dispatch, dated Feb. 19, from Pietermaritzburg:

It is reported that Sir Redvers Buller has captured Hlangwane hill. Large numbers of Free Staters have left to meet Lord Roberts' force. It is said that a number of Boer big guns have been taken back across the border.

CHIEVELEY, Feb. 20.—The Boers' line of fortresses is broken. The British have achieved a decided success in capturing the enemy's position on Monte Cristo. The Boers, however, effectively executed a retreat, removing their guns and convoy wagons. The British had comparatively few casualties.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The war office gave out a dispatch from General Buller, which contained the following:

"Chieveley Camp, Feb. 19.—I yesterday moved around the enemy's flank. The Queen's, who had bivouacked on the northern slope of Cingolo, crossed the Nek, and, supported by the rest of the Second brigade, under Hildyard, assaulted and took the southern end of Monte Cristo.

MAJOR GENERAL ARTHUR FITZROY HART.
[One of Buller's brigade commanders.]

"The Fourth brigade, on the left or western slope, and the Welsh Fusiliers, supported by the rest of the Sixth brigade, assaulted the eastern flank of the enemy's position, while the Second brigade cavalry, or the extreme right, watched the eastern slopes of Monte Cristo and drove back those of the enemy attempting to escape there from our artillery fire. Assaulted by heavy artillery fire on the front and flank and attacked on their flank and rear, the enemy made but slight resistance, and, abandoning their strong position, were driven across the Tugela. I have taken several camps, a wagon load of ammunition, several wagons of stores and supplies and a few prisoners.

"The weather has been intensely hot and the ground traversed was exceedingly difficult. But the energy and dash of the troops have been very pleasant to see. They have all done splendidly. The work of the irregular cavalry, the Queen's, the Scots Fusiliers and the Rifle brigade was, perhaps, most noticeable, while the excellent practice of the artillery and naval guns and the steadiness of the gunners, under, at times, very accurate fire, was remarkable. The accurate fire of the naval guns from Chieveley was of great assistance. Our casualties are not, I think, many."

FIGHTING AT RENSBURG.

Dispatch From Correspondent With the Boers Tells of Capture of Some Wiltshires.

LOURENÇO MARQUES, Feb. 20.—A correspondent who was with the Boer forces in the attack upon Rensburg, gives further particulars regarding the capture of the Wiltshires. He said: "Commandant Peller, who arrived

GENERAL P. A. CRONJE.

first, found two companies of the Wiltshires and began attacking in the open. Soon after he was joined by a body of Free Staters, and together they drove the British back from the neighboring kopjes, capturing all but three.

"It is impossible to say exactly how many of the British were killed and wounded, but of the 200 Wiltshires, 142 were captured and of these 44 were wounded.

"The suffering of the wounded from heat and thirst was intense. The Burglers did their best to alleviate this, and many of the wounded were carried in blankets to Rensburg siding.

"At Reitfontein the British rear guard began shelling, thus compelling the federals to leave the wounded in order to repulse the attack. A federal Krupp gun replied effectively to the British cannonade. The Boers lost two killed and four wounded.

"They now occupy all the Rensburg positions formerly occupied by the British, whose rear guard is at Reitfontein, with the federals close up."

DALY IS TO TESTIFY.

Will Answer Clark—Witness' Excuse For Offering a Bribe—Clark on the Stand.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Senator Clark, of Montana, was again the star witness before the senate committee on privileges and elections.

Dr. Treacy, Justice Hunt's family physician, made a statement concerning his interviews with Justice Hunt, which corroborated the testimony of the justice in all essential details, except that his recollection was that $50,000 and not $100,000 was the amount mentioned by him as the price which the justice could get for having the Wellcome disbarment case thrown out of the state supreme court. He said that Justice Hunt was an intimate friend, and he asserted his motive to be, in taking the course he did, to test his ability to withstand the corrupting influence of money. He had received no funds from any source to pay the bribe suggested, and had been promised none for that purpose.

Mr. Clark necessarily went over much of the ground covered by him in his testimony Saturday. He was cross-examined by Mr. Campbell, and insisted that he had spent no money for corrupt purposes during the Montana senatorial campaign. He gave a detailed statement of expenditures for political purposes during the legislative and senatorial contests, which footed up, as Senator Turley announced, to $139,000. He declared that his only purpose in entering upon the campaign was the overthrow of Mr. Daly's rule in the state, which, he said, was so tyrannical that he would not desire to continue his residence in the state if it was to continue.

Mr. Campbell said that Mr. Daly would go on the stand in rebuttal. He is expected every day.

IN BEHALF OF MISSIONARIES.

Bishop Von Anzer to Visit Pope—Wants Europe to Act.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—Bishop Von Anzer, of Shan Tun, the well-known German missionary, arrived at Rome and, after an audience with the pope, will come to Berlin.

He will report to the pope that the imminent dangers now threatening the Catholic missions in China are due partly to the aggressive policy of Europe toward China since 1897 and partly to the anti-foreignism of the dowager empress.

The aim of Bishop Von Anzer is to induce all the European governments interested to join in an attempt to convince the Peking government of the necessity of suppressing all combinations and demonstrations directed against foreigners and, if necessary, enforce this jointly.

STEEL CONCERNS TO MOVE.

Headquarters of National Steel and Tinplate to Be in New York.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Almost the entire office force in Chicago, of the American Tinplate company and the National Steel company, will be sent to New York next week, where the headquarters of the two concerns will be established.

The removal of the headquarters from Chicago to New York, which has been under discussion by the officials for some time, is said to be caused by the alleged heavy restrictions in the corporation laws of Illinois.

Marcel-Habert to Be Tried.

PARIS, Feb. 20.—The senate, as a high court, reassembled in order to try Deputy Marcel-Habert on the same charges as those upon which M. Deroude was recently convicted, namely, attempting to lead troops upon the Elysee palace at the time of the funeral of the late President Faure.

Beaver Falls Firm Got It.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Penn Bridge company, of Beaver Falls, was the lowest bidder, at $29,737, for constructing a machine shop building for the Mare Island navy yard.

MISS WHEELER TO WED

Pennsylvanian Wins Heroic Girl's Hand.

LT. FISCUS IS THE LUCKY MAN.

Son of Ex-Treasurer and Ex-Sheriff Fiscus, of Armstrong County, Pa.—Now Stationed in the Philippines—Miss Wheeler En Route Home.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The announcement of the engagement of Lieutenant W. W. Fiscus, Nineteenth United States infantry, now stationed in the Philippines, to Miss Annie Wheeler, the youngest daughter of General Joe Wheeler, has just been received by the lieutenant's sister, Dr. Blanche F. Greaves, of this city. Lieutenant Fiscus' acquaintance with Miss Wheeler dates from the time he was a cadet at West Point, where General Wheeler's two sons were his classmates. Miss Wheeler frequently visited her brothers at the military academy, and in this way made the acquaintance of Cadet Fiscus.

Fiscus served through the Santiago campaign and shortly after the surrender of Santiago was stricken with typhoid fever and was brought with other sufferers to New York. His life was despaired of, but he pulled through and he accompanied his regiment to the Philippines. The same transport which carried Lieutenant Fiscus to the Philippines also had as passengers General Wheeler and his daughter, Miss Annie Wheeler, who was going out as an army nurse.

Miss Wheeler and her father are now on their way to the United States on the transport Warren. The marriage will take place as soon as Lieutenant Fiscus can obtain leave of absence from duty in the Philippines. Lieutenant Fiscus is a son of W. W. Fiscus, who is well known in the western part of Pennsylvania, having been twice sheriff and once treasurer of Armstrong county.

To Assist In Work of Erecting New M. E. Chapel—News of Chester.

The members of the Chester Methodist Episcopal chapel intend to push matters with all possible haste in reference to the building of a new chapel in that part of the county. Last evening a cottage prayermeeting, under the direction of Rev. Clark Crawford, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Birden in Chester. There were about 25 persons present. After the services a general discussion about the building of the new chapel took place. A number of the ladies interested in the church will hold a meeting soon and organize a society for the extension of the church work. Another congregational meeting will be held on the evening of March 5.

The Clark Bill.

The Cleveland Leader says: The opposition to the Clark local option bill relies mainly on efforts to intimidate men with political ambitions. There is little effort to argue the case against a measure which merely gives the people of temperance districts in cities a chance to get rid of the liquor traffic. There ought to be enough fearless Republicans in the Ohio Senate to pass the bill. The saloon was eliminated from politics several years ago, and it is a good idea to keep it out of politics.

PRESIDENT C. W. TINDLE MAKES A STATEMENT.

The News Review Gives the Public His Words as Spoken Last Evening.

"You can state for me that the Chester rolling mill has not been sold and is not at present connected with any trust. The plant is expected to be ready for operation about the latter part of the month of April, under the present control and management."

The News Review had an article respecting the sale of this mill to a trust in Saturday's issue. The authority for that article was and is supposed to be absolutely reliable and truthful, and as he is in a position to know what he is talking about, this paper gave the story in good faith. The local sheet which records "ANCIENT HISTORY" had about the same story in its issue of Monday. We await developments. Property holders on the Chester side, in common with others specially interested in investments, are anxiously investigating affairs in connection with the rumors prevalent.

When she stepped off the car she was surrounded by about thirty employees of the company and taken into the office, where Mr. M. E. Baxter, on behalf of the employees, made a neat speech and presented the handsome gifts. Miss Geon, though completely surprised, responded in a fitting manner.

According to the statement of suit Toland and Miss Huston have been "courtin'" for the past 12 years. She says that about four years ago she and Toland became engaged but that in November, 1899, in violation of his contract to marry her, he married a Miss Moore.

Miss Huston says she had spent considerable money and time in preparing necessary articles for housekeeping and that she has been sick for the past three months by reason of the great disappointment.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter of West Fifth street, who says: "If everyone receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's kidney pills, my advice is, go to Larkins' drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to anyone personally calling upon me."

A Three Cornered War.

When Colonel Cartwell was military governor of Norfolk under the Confederacy in 1862, he ordered the British consul to report for duty on the home guard. To this the Englishman objected on the ground of being consul at Norfolk.

"To what government?" asked Colonel Cartwell.

"To the United States government," was the reply.

"But you are in the Confederate states, and you must show papers accrediting you to the Confederate States of America," said the colonel.

"But my government doesn't recognize you as a government," said the consul.

"Very well, then; my government doesn't recognize you as consul," briskly retorted Colonel Cartwell. "Shoulder your musket and join your company."

At this the peacefully disposed consul threatened to have a gunboat come and bombard the place before he would serve.

"That's just what I'd like to see," returned the colonel cheerily, "for then the United States will fight you, as she claims that Norfolk is still part of the Union, and between England and the United States fighting we shall go free."

At last the consul appealed to Mr. Benjamin, the Confederate secretary of war, who ordered his exemption from military duty, and the "three cornered war" so desired by Colonel Cartwell never came to pass.—Youth's Companion.

Unique Wedding Present.

Most people know of the peculiar circumstances under which Robert Louis Stevenson won his wife. But even more romantic and astounding was the unique wedding gift he got with her.

When Stevenson met his future fate at Barbizon, a famous artists' resort near Paris, she was the wife of Mr. Osborne, an Oakland gentleman. The friendship thus formed led Stevenson to pay a visit to California. He arrived at Monterey in a dying condition, but the loving care of Mrs. Osborne and her sister, Nellie Van der Grift, gradually won him back to life. The nursing completed his infatuation for the lady—an infatuation which he did not pretend to conceal. Fortunately Osborne raised no objections. He not only agreed to the divorce, but with a magnanimity rarely excelled actually attended the wedding breakfast. There he found his opportunity.

Mrs. Stevenson's one source of regret was the positive loss of her son, Lloyd Osborne, whom, of course, the father had the right to claim. Osborne made a happy speech, felicitating the newly married couple, and wound up by offering the most original of wedding presents. "To the bride," he said, "I give that which of all things is nearest and dearest to her heart, her own son."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

English Officers Wear Armor.

Many officers of the British army are wearers of armor. As a general rule the mail is inclosed in a leather casing, which is sewed inside the tunic, so as to be invisible unless the garment is picked to pieces. And the same with helmets—a similar device is fixed in the lining, so as to give additional protection in case of need. Some officers are not above wearing mail vests underneath their tunics and perfectly oblivious of their comrades, who, although they may scoff in times of peace, would only be too glad to don one themselves when in the middle of hostilities. The majority of the maker's customers are officers, because the suits are very expensive, costing about 10 guineas each.—Regiment.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS

Are Scarce and Two More Were Named Last Night.

TREASURER DOUBLES HIS BOND

So the Board Can Get All That's Coming to It Quicker—Now $60,000 Instead of $30,000—A Half Hour Session Held Last Evening.

The same members who were at the last meeting of the Board of Education, held Jan. 22, were present last evening, namely, Messrs. Vodrey, Hill, Taggart and Murphy. Because one of the members had another meeting to attend, the meeting was called to order at 7:15 and lasted but half an hour.

Supt. Rayman reported that the new addition to the Grant street school had been opened and seven teachers are now employed in the school. This is all that will be needed this term, but an increase will be made in the number next fall.

Clerk Hill reported word had been received from the Slatington Bangor Slate Co., of Slatington, Pa., that the company had accepted the order of the board to furnish the slate for the new East End building.

Mr. Rayman reported substitute teachers were very scarce and asked that two more be appointed by the board. The names of Miss Jeannette Hill and Miss Mary E. Gladden were suggested by Mr. Rayman, and they were elected by the board, having passed the teachers' examination last Saturday.

Permission was granted Superintendent Rayman to attend the national superintendents' meeting at Chicago next week. He will leave for that place next Monday afternoon and will be gone the entire week.

The following bills were ordered paid: Watson & Sloan, $3 19; Andy Ratray, $3 09; Pennsylvania company, $1.01; Mrs. W. A. Beane, $4.04; Ohio Valley Gas company, $208 35; American Book company, $435 47; typewriter, $100; Bartlett & Co., $631; Crisis, $3 75; News Review, $2 40; Tribune, $3 50; Mrs. A. M. Davidson, $13 49; John Ryan, $2 20; Western Union Telegraph company, 32 cents; Ginn & Co., $8.90; John I. Hudson, $9; Claude Nease, $150; John Cain, $1,385; Lewis Brothers, $31 25; T. B. Murphy, $2.10; T. O. Timmons, $20; Peck Williamson company, $474; Diamond Hardware company, $1; Telephone company, $24.75; Z. B. Kinsey, $22 83; J. Jones, $4 55; Union Planing Mill company, $4 96; Wilson Stationery company, $26 75.

The following resolution, increasing the bond of the treasurer from $30,000 to $60,000, was presented by Mr. Murphy and adopted by the board:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the board it is necessary for the treasurer of the school funds to execute and file an additional bond, with the usual conditions and penalty, of $30,000 and that when his term of office expires his successors give bond with appended sureties in the sum of $60,000.

The bond was presented by Clerk Hill for Mr. S. T. Herbert and contained the following sureties: S. T. Herbert, Robert Hall, David Boyce, Wm. Cartwright, J. M. Kelly.

There is now due the school district from the county treasurer over $25,000. The law prevents the school treasurer having on hand school funds amounting to more than half the value of his bond. In order to get the money for deposit in city banks it became necessary for the treasurer to increase his bond to $60,000.

Mentioned as Usual.
Clara—Did the newspapers notice your papa at the banquet?
Freddie—Yes.
Clara—Well, mamma said she could not see his name in the list.
Freddie—No, but the list ends up with "and others." That means papa. They always mention him that way.—Tit-Bits.

THE BOOK COLLECTOR.

He Made a Swap Which Satisfied the Secondhand Dealer.

"It's astonishing how book collecting will blunt a man's conception of the rights of meum et tuum," said the proprietor of a delightful old secondhand store on the south side of the town. "I wouldn't trust a confirmed collector as far as I could throw Jackson square by the monument. They all consider themselves licensed privateers, and when one of them wants any particular volume and can't buy it the chances are it will mysteriously disappear the first time he pays you a visit. I am on to most of the tricks of the fraternity, however, and it takes a pretty smooth individual to secure any plunder in this shop."

"Only recently I circumvented an old gentleman in a manner that is apt to adhere to his memory for some time. He is a passionate admirer of Dickens and has a fine collection of early editions and books in general relating to the great novelist. One of his sets, a very handsome print with the original Cruikshank plates, is short one volume, the eighth. I have a copy of the same edition, and he has tried repeatedly to get me to break it so as to complete his own, but I have of course refused."

"Then I noticed that he began to drop in of afternoons with a book under his arm, looking up and down the shelves. The volume he carried bore a close external resemblance to the copy of Dickens he wanted, and I suspected at once that I would some day find them exchanged. Consequently I locked up the coveted volume 8 and substituted a worthless treatise on mathematics bound in the same manner. My visitor knew the exact location of the book on the shelf, and the other day I purposely gave him an opportunity to make the shift. It was done in a twinkling, and presently he strolled out. I haven't seen him since. The book he left was a very pretty copy of Kents. I am well satisfied with the swap."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

THE LEADING ARTICLE.

Advent and Development of the Editorial in Newspapers.

"I know what 'leaders' are, for I have written them," said Benjamin Disraeli in the course of a speech in the house of commons, and, though all of us may not have written "leaders" for The Morning Post and other newspapers, like Disraeli, we all at least know the meaning of the term "leaders."

For more than 100 years after the publication of the first daily newspaper The Daily Courant, which consisted of a small sheet printed on one side only and made its appearance in London in March, 1702, the "dailies" confined themselves to what is perhaps the proper business of a newspaper, the publication of the largest possible amount of news, and made no attempt whatever to mold or direct public opinion.

At the opening of the nineteenth century "the leading article" first appeared in the morning papers. It was originally called the "leaded article," because of the "leads" or spaces introduced between the lines to spread out the article and give it an imposing appearance in order that it might at once attract the eye of even the most casual reader. After a time it was called "leading article" or "leader" or "editorial," names by which it is now universally known in newspaper offices.

At the beginning "leaders" were published only tentatively. Their publication was irregular. In form they were brief—we should call them "editorial paragraphs" now—and they were principally used to direct special attention to some important event recorded in the news columns. But 75 years ago they became a settled and regular feature of the daily newspaper and a potent agency for promoting opinions, political, religious and social.—Cornhill Magazine.

His Request.

Husband—My dear, I want to ask you one favor before you go off on that long visit.

Field Marshal Roberts was on his way to take charge of the campaign against the Boers in 1881 after Majuba hill, when Gladstone ordered the cessation of hostilities. It is not often that a man takes up a job where he left off 19 years before. British confidence in their favorite general seems to have been well placed.

LEGISLATIVE.

So far 455 bills have been introduced in the state house of representatives and about 50, none of any great importance, have been passed. Of these about half have also been passed by the senate. Some 400 more bills are expected to be introduced. The judiciary committee, to whom the Clark local option bill was referred, will meet tomorrow evening. The bill will not be reported to the senate until next week. There is some talk that it will be amended in the senate, which will necessitate its return to the house for concurrence or rejection. The opponents of the bill then hope to kill it, but its supporters are confident it will go through all right.

She carried great audiences by storm in New York City and has won the hearts of music lovers whenever and wherever she has appeared. Her lamented father, the world famous violinist, paid us a visit during his life-time, and charmed, with his wonderful skill, delighted audiences at our Grand Opera House. You should not fail to hear his now famous daughter, who will appear at the Grand on Friday night, February 23, in company with a noted violinist and an equally noted pianist, artists par excellence.

TRUE REPUBLICAN VOTERS!

With your magnificent vote in East Liverpool, you have full control of the city and its interests. You have a great responsibility upon you. How WILL YOU MAKE USE OF THE POWER IN YOUR HANDS?

Unprincipled and evil men, CARING NOT A BAUBEE FOR ANY PARTY, Republican, Democratic or Prohibition, caring only to carry out their wicked and selfish purposes, have attached themselves, leech-like, to the Republican party, and are using the Grand Old Party for the carrying out of their base purposes.

These fellows, these leeches, have men in training for the berth of mayor, marshal and councilmen. They are holding meetings every night and aim to defeat the will and purpose of good and law-abiding citizens. Will you permit such chicanery? Will you permit this vicious minority to rule?

Can you defeat these evil and vicious men? Certainly you can. How? Agitate! Talk to your neighbor! Talk to your friends! Talk to the community at large! Go to the polls! Cast your ballot for good and true men! You have such men on your ticket! Vote for them. Don't cast a vote for men who have been TRIED and found LACKING!

Remember your taxes! Remember foolish and vicious and careless legislation! Remember unnecessary legal contests and the placing of bad men on your police force—lawbreakers and not law-enforcers?

Go to the polls next Saturday. Cast your ballot. Don't let a vote for righteousness be lost. Take your neighbor with you. See that men are elected who have not an ITCHING PALM—men who cannot be BOUGHT and SOLD like cattle.

Is it possible that bribes are ever offered to councilmen in this city? Yea,

MR. METSCH SPEAKS.

Like the Fair and Square Man That He Is, He Defies Misrepresentation.

Christian Metsch is a fair and square man, and his character and standing in this section of country is unimpeachable. He hates a backbiter and a slanderer. He is making a clean canvass in his battle for mayor, and is making not a shadow of attack upon any of his competitors in the mayoralty race. The following statement from our townsman will set all false rumors and idle reports at rest:

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO,

February 20, 1900.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—I don't like misrepresentation. As a rule I let slanderers and falsifiers severely alone, and let my life speak for itself. But my friends desire that I shall speak to the public respecting ugly rumors that my political enemies have been disseminating and giving circulation, in the endeavor to, if possible, injure me in my race for the nomination to the berth of mayor of East Liverpool, on the Republican ticket. On my honor as a man and citizen, I have not spent a single penny in the endeavor to secure votes for myself, save the legitimate expenses asked by the Republican executive committee, my card in the city papers and the tickets made use of for a canvass among my friends and acquaintances and the voters of the city.

Respectfully,

CHRISTIAN METSCH.

Mr. Metsch's card has the right ring. He is known and respected far and wide and those who are so basely attempting to vilify and slander him will find that they have made use of a boomerang.

HAYES DROPPED DEAD

His Death Is Supposed to Be the Result of a Fight.

AN INQUEST WILL BE HELD

And an Effort Will Be Made to Discover Who the Parties Were With Whom Hayes Had His Fight—A Post-Mortem Examination Was Held This Morning.

Charles Hayes dropped dead this morning, and it is thought his death may be due to wounds received in a fight several days ago.

Hayes got up this morning and went to the shop of Samuel Frost, Kossuth street, where he is employed. He was seen trying to open the door and then he fell. A. D. Martin, who was passing, saw him fall, and quickly rushed to the spot. It took but a glance for him to observe that Hayes was seriously ill and he called help. A physician was sent for, but when he arrived Hayes was beyond earthly help. Squire Rose was notified and later the case was called to the attention of the trustees, who had the body removed to the undertaking establishment of John Rinehart.

Coroner Straughn was notified, but he was too ill to hold an inquest and Prosecuting Attorney Brooks was notified of the circumstances, and he stated that an inquest and post mortem should be held. The inquest will be conducted by Squire Rose tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

Hayes was aged about 50 years and came to this city about one year ago. He was a quiet, inoffensive sort of a man, and had very little to say about himself. He roomed at John Hoffman's, corner Fourth and Market streets, but had been there only one week. When he arrived there he had a black eye and looked as if he had been in a fight. He has a wife living at Bathport or Newport, Staffordshire, Eng. Mr. Frost, for whom Hayes worked, knew but little about him and could not tell anything about the fight. There is absolutely no clue to the parties with whom Hayes had the trouble.

Dr. W. A. Hobbs and Dr. G. P. Iktit this morning held a post mortem examination, but refused to state the result of the examination until after the inquest had been held.

The remains were interred in River-view cemetery this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

FINED HIM.

Bert Johnson Was Fined For Trying to Buy Liquor From John Michaels.

John Michaels yesterday, in the court of Squire Rose, made complaint against Bert Johnson. Johnson is a minor, and Michaels says he has been coming in his saloon and buying liquor. The squire fined him $3 and costs.

Next morning Jeff brought the trousers back, with a big grease spot still prominent on one knee. "Can't you get that spot out?" said the owner of the trousers. "No, sah."

"Did you try turpentine?" "Fo' de Lawd, I done saccharated 'em wid turpentine."

Did a Wholesale Business.

An Englishman hailing from the north went into the Chatham hotel, in Paris, recently and cautiously asked the price of a whisky.

"One franc, sir," replied the bartender.

"And a whisky and soda?"
"One franc, sir. All drinks are the same price."

The Englishman sat down and, to his astonishment, found that the place was run on American lines and that the customers helped themselves at their own discretion. He punished that bottle of whisky till it was nearly empty. As he went out he paid down his franc, but the manager called him back and said, "You have forgotten your change."

"I thought that the drink was a franc?"

"That is so, sir," was the reply. "That is the retail price, but there is a reduction when you buy wholesale." And he handed back 5 sous.—London Chronicle.

The candidates were just one hour and thirty-five minutes selecting the inspectors.

The central committee ratified the action of the candidates and the inspectors will get their satisfaction from the chairman and secretary of the committee. They will be permitted to inspect the counting of the votes only.

A SLIGHT KICK.

A Large Number of the Candidates Wanted to Come First on the Ticket.

After the names of the inspectors had been filed a motion was made that the candidates be placed on the ticket in the order in which they had filed their names with Clerk Hanley. Immediately there was a kick from the candidates, and an amendment to the motion was suggested by Will Randolph, who thought the candidates should draw lots. The amendment was voted down and the man who got his name in first will be first on the ticket. This has been the custom of the committee for a number of years.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

The Central Committee Transacted Business Without the Aid of Outsiders.

The central committee then went into executive session and some discussion was had in regard to the rules for conducting the primary. It was finally decided to abide by the rules adopted by the county committee. A committee was appointed to prepare the ballots and to award the same to the lowest bidder. All the candidates are privileged to print sample ballots if they so desire. The election will take place between 12:30 and 6:30 city time.

BIG BUSINESS DONE BY JUDGE P. M. SMITH

During His Four Years' Service on the Bench in Common Pleas Court.

LISBON, Feb. 20.—[Special]—Judge Smith retires from the common pleas bench today, after occupying the position four years and two months. To give the public an idea of the amount of business transacted in common pleas court it is found on examination that when the judge assumed his duties, Dec. 16, 1895, there were 470 civil cases pending on the trial docket; 1,788 cases were filed during his term and 1,980 cases were disposed of, leaving now on the trial docket 278 civil cases. In addition 1,012 criminal cases were disposed of during that term. It will be observed from this statement that while the business of the court has been increasing yearly, in the amount of litigation, the number of civil cases pending has been reduced by 192.

AGAINST SUGAR TRUST

Richardson Introduced Resolutions in House.

SAIL MOVE WAS NON-PARTISAN.

He Declared He Acted For the Purpose of Making It Mandatory on Interstate Commerce Commission to Act Under Recent Court Decisions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Representative Richardson (Tenn.), the minority leader of the house, after consultation with some of his Democratic colleagues, introduced in the house two resolutions aimed at the sugar trust.

The first is as follows:

Whereas, The prices of sugars have recently several times been advanced, manufacturers in each instance having agreed upon the same price per pound, which is prima facie evidence that a trust or combination exists for the purpose of destroying competition in order that enormous profits may be realized; the American Sugar Refining company, of New Jersey having for many years paid 18 per cent annually in dividends upon $36,000,000 of common stock,

Therefore, resolved, that sugars manufactured by the said American Sugar Refining company, of New Jersey, and all other manufacturers in this country shall, after six months from the passage of this act, be prohibited by the interstate commerce commission from being transported, in any manner whatsoever from one state to another until the said commission are satisfied that sugars offered for interstate transportation have not yielded a profit to the manufacturers thereof of more than 4 per cent in excess of the cost of the same, which shall be ascertained in such manner as the said commission in its discretion may determine.

The second provides that

Whereas, A monopoly exists among sugar manufacturers, and in consequence enormous profits are being realized; therefore,

Resolved, That from and after the passage of this resolution, all kinds of sugars, molasses and every thing entering into the manufacture of sugars shall be admitted free of duty from Porto Rico, Cuba and the Hawaiian Islands.

Mr. Richardson, speaking of these resolutions, said:

"The interstate commerce commission, under the constitution as interpreted by the supreme court in the Addyston Pipe and Steel Company and the E. C. Knight Company cases, has the power to refuse interstate transportation to sugars and other manufactured articles which produce enormous profits through monopolistic control, until the profits on such goods have been brought within fair and reasonable limits, and when the necessities of life are involved as in sugars, if not in all other manufactured articles controlled by monopolies, public sentiment will sustain the commission in the exercise of such power. In order, however, through a specific governmental enactment to make it mandatory for the said commission to exercise that power, I have offered this non-partisan resolution."

PORTO RICAN TARIFF WAS UNDER DEBATE.

Payne Explained the Bill—Richardson Spoke For and Dalzell Against the Measure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Debate upon the Porto Rican tariff bill, which is to continue throughout the week and possibly longer, opened in the house. On all hands it is agreed that this bill, though it applies only to Porto Rico, involving as it does the question of the power to govern our new possessions outside the limitations of the constitution is the most important measure which will come before this congress. Interest in the bill is intense among the members on both sides and there is urgent demand for time. The Democrats are solidly arrayed against the measure and they will have powerful support from the Republican side in Mr. McCall, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, both able and forceful debaters. How far the Republican disaffection will extend, or whether it will endanger the bill, it is impossible to say at this time.

Mr. Payne, the floor leader of the majority, refused to agree that a vote should be taken upon a substitute to be offered by the minority. This substitute, which has not yet been framed, will be in substance the bill originally introduced by Mr. Payne, providing for free trade with Porto Rico, with the extension of customs and revenue laws of the United States over the island.

The debate lacked exciting features. It was in the nature of a long range bombardment before the clash of the contending forces in battle: Mr. Payne opened with a general argument in support of the bill, going largely into the material side of the situation which the bill is designed to relieve. Mr. Richardson, the Democratic leader, joined issue upon the power of congress to enact the proposed legislation. and Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, backed up Mr. Payne with a constitutional and legal argument. All three were listened to with close attention.

Mr. Richardson (Tenn.) the leader of the minority, made the opening argument in opposition to the measure. "I am not an alarmist," said he, "but in my judgment the pending bill is more dangerous to the liberties of the people of this republic than any measure before seriously presented to the American congress. It will prove far reaching in its provisions and disastrous in the results that must of necessity follow if it should be enacted into law than any act ever passed by congress."

"The bill is framed upon the idea and assumption that congress enters upon the government of Porto Rico unrestrained by the provisions of the constitution. This we deny. Those of us who oppose this measure, I believe, without exception, maintain that the bill cannot be enacted into law without a total disregard and violation of not simply the spirit, but the express letter of the constitution."

Mr. Dalzell (Pa.), second ranking majority member of the ways and means committee, followed in a close legal and constitutional argument in support of the contention of the majority that the constitution did not extend over our new possessions.

Turning to the question of the consent of the governed, Mr. Dalzell asserted that in a representative republic the right to govern did not depend on the consent of the governed. The methods of government prescribed by the principles of Anglican liberty as practiced in the United States would be grotesque in the Philippine islands and would bring on their people no advantage. They would be in point of fact impossible of exercise.

"The guarantees of liberty," he concluded, do not exist alone in the constitution of the United States. They do not depend upon the great interest for their strength and perpetuity. They would continue to live and flourish if that constitution were annihilated. They are the indestructible heritage of humanity."

EXPLAINED THE HAWAIIAN BILL.

Cullom Spoke In Senate—Debate on Government of Islands.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The senate, after a long discussion, the resolution offered by Mr. Hale was adopted, calling upon the committee of the District of Columbia for information as to why the law of congress relating to telephone charges had not been enforced and practically was inoperative.

The debate developed into one of constitutional construction and the right of congress to legislate for the territories. The discussion finally turned on the authority of congress at its pleasure to extend or withhold the constitution to the territory acquired by the United States.

The bill providing a government for the territory of Hawaii was under consideration, Mr. Cullom in charge of the measure, explaining in detail its provisions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Republican caucus of the senate discussed the order of business in the senate, deciding to take up the bill providing a government for Porto Rico next after the disposal of the Hawaiian bill.

Attention was called to the resolution for seating Senator Quay, but no action was taken upon it, the suggestion being made that, as it is a privileged question, it can be taken up at any time. It was also decided to have Republicans succeed Democrats in a number of appointments in the senate.

Pennsylvania Depressed by Report of New Car Trust Some Other Features of Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The outside public still refused to manifest any interest in the stock market Monday and operations continued wholly in the hands of professional traders. This element made an attempt to force a continuance of last week's reaction, using as their main argument the drain being made upon the cash resources of the banks. Monday's statement of sub-treasury operations showed a loss already since Friday to that institution of $1,421,000. This showing helped the bears in an early raid on the market which wiped out the opening gains and carried prices generally below Saturday's closing level.

One or two stocks suffered from individual causes and helped on the reaction. Pennsylvania was depressed on reports of a new car trust involving many million dollars. The bears did not succeed in bringing out any large offerings and were driven to cover on the development of aggressive strength in several stocks. The most potent factor in the rally was the very large increase in earnings for the second week in February shown by a number of railroads. Norfolk and Western made the most striking exhibit, with an increase over the corresponding period of last year of $133,858, which is very nearly 96 per cent. This resulted in very large absorption of the stock at an extreme advance of 2 1/4, and had a sympathetic effect on all the bituminous coal carrying roads, contributing to the rally in Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio. Toledo and Ohio Central showed an increase in earnings of 75 per cent for the second week in February. These evidences of the large demand for bituminous coal were coupled with reports of increasing use of anthracite in steam production because of difficulty in obtaining soft coal.

Dealings were not on a large scale and the market fell very dull before the close, but held quite firm near the top. Business in bonds showed some falling off in volume and price changes were mixed. Total sales, par value, $1,985,000. United States old 6s and 6s advanced 1/8 and the 2s 1/2 in the bid price.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Corn, sold to a standstill without weakening, reacted on covering by shorts Monday and closed strong, May 3/4 of a cent over Saturday. Wheat was easy early, but reacted with corn and unfavorable weather in France, May closing firm 1/4 of a cent up. Oats closed a shade and provisions 2 1/2 to 7 1/2 @ 10 cents better.

PATENT OFFICE IN GOOD SHAPE.

Money Received and Number of Patents Issued Very Large.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The annual report of the commissioner of patents for the year ending Dec. 31, 1899, shows that the total receipts of the office amounted to $1,325,457, a sum but twice exceeded since 1836. After deducting the expenditures for the year there was a surplus of $113,673.

The patent office has now paid into the treasury $5,086,649 more than it has drawn out. The number of patents issued, including designs and reissues, was 25,527, a number but once exceeded. The number of patents expiring during the year was 18,133.

STONE'S RIGHT TO VETO.

Case Delayed Until Next Summer and Maybe Later.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The supreme court rescinded the order previously made fixing the 23rd inst. for the argument on the question of the right of the governor to veto resolutions passed by the legislature to submit constitutional amendments to the vote of the people.

This action was taken on the petition of M. E. Olmsted and W. U. Hensel, that they could not be present on that date.

FOR A RESERVE SOLDIERY.

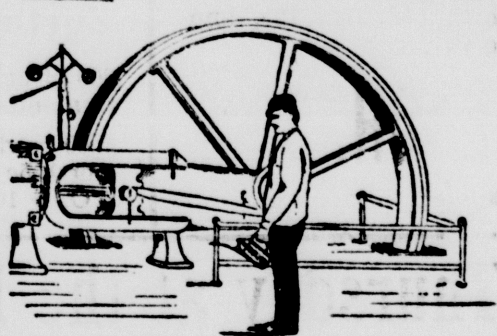

Secretary Root Placed His Plan Under General Ludlow's Charge.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Secretary Root turned over to General Ludlow his plan to secure the creation of a reserve list of persons in civil life who are fully equipped for instant military service.

General Ludlow has been instructed to work out the details of the plan in order that the war department may be enabled to submit a tangible operative scheme for the approval of congress, which body must supply certain legisla-

You have been in the power house of some great plant of machinery. Did it occur to you that your body was a more wonderful machine?

In the term of a natural life the heart beats three thousand million times and with a pressure of thirteen pounds to the stroke, lifts in that time, half a million tons of blood. What care are you taking of this wonderful machine?

Shortness of breath, buzzing in the ears, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, stomach trouble, indigestion are only some of the evidences that the machinery is undergoing a strain which sooner or later will break it down.

What the lubricant is to the machine of iron, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is to the machine of flesh and blood. It reduces friction to a minimum and keeps the great organs in proper running order. It does this by healing diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and increasing the flow of pure and healthy blood.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Broadwater Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief, as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to 125 pounds and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly 160 and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. Use them with the "Discovery" when a pill is required.

The secretary's purpose is to have the military schools and colleges of the country brought into close touch with the regular army and track kept of them when they go into civil life, especially if they join the national guard.

UNION LABELS

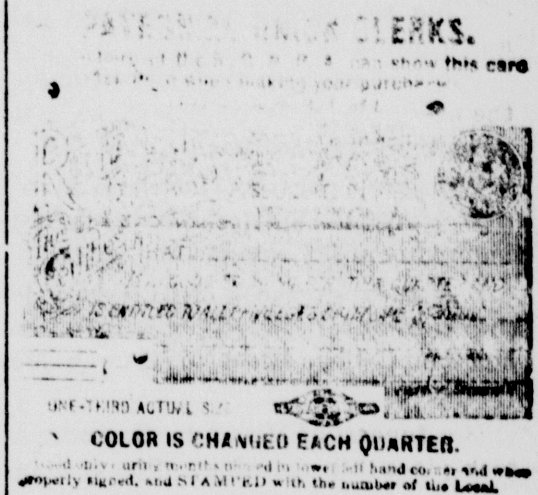

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

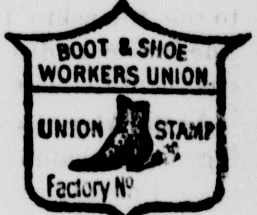

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

THE REGENT DIAMOND.

It is Acknowledged the Most Perfect Brilliant in Existence.

The "Pitt" (or "Regent," as it was afterward called) is the most perfect brilliant in existence, and its history is also very remarkable. It is said to have been found by a slave in the Partea mines in 1701, who to retain his treasure cut a hole in the calf of his leg, in which he concealed it, although it is more probable he secreted it among the bandages. The slave escaped to the coast with his find, where he encountered an English skipper, whom he made his confidant, offering, indeed, to bestow upon him the stone in return for his liberty. The mariner, apparently consenting to the slave's proposal, took him out to sea and when there drowned him, after obtaining possession of the diamond. Disposing of the gem to a diamond merchant for £1,000, it is said the man afterward hanged himself in a fit of remorse.

Mr. Pitt, governor of Fort St. George and great-grandfather of the illustrious William Pitt, became the next possessor of this valuable stone, weighing 410 carats, for £20,000. He sent it to London, where he had it very skillfully cut at a cost of £5,000, the process occupying two years. Pitt appears to have found his diamond no very enviable possession, for, after refuting the calumnies of his enemies, who had charged him with having obtained it by unfair means, he was so haunted by the fear of being robbed that he never slept two nights consecutively under the same roof, never gave notice of his arrival in or departure from town and went about mysteriously disguised. He must necessarily have felt greatly relieved when he parted with the diamond to the Duc d'Orleans, regent during the minority of Louis XV, king of France, in 1717 for the sum of £135,000.—Chambers' Journal.

MINERS AND MORPHINE.

A Necessary Custom Which is Not Pleasant to Contemplate.

"When I was in the northwest," said a gentleman with some money invested in mines, "I employed a prospector to go out into the mountains looking for properties which had been recommended to me. One day he was to have gone from our camp over into a very rough and rocky district, but when evening came he reported that he hadn't made the trip.

"Why not?" I inquired. "Because I didn't have my morphine with me," he responded in a very matter of fact manner.

"Morphine?" said I in astonishment. "What has that got to do with it? You are not a morphine fiend, are you?"

"Not as much of one as you are a tenderfoot," he laughed and proceeded to inform me that every prospector who knew his business always carried with him enough morphine to kill a man easily and that he did so in order to end himself quickly in case of an accident which would disable him far away from assistance. There were many instances of prospectors falling over cliffs and crippling themselves or breaking a leg in a hole among the rocks or rendering themselves helpless in some other way, and death was sure to follow by starvation or freezing or in some sections by being devoured by wolves or other wild animals. In order to prevent such a horrible death as any of these the prospector simplified matters by always carrying a little packet of morphine, which not only quieted the pain of the hurt he had sustained, but put him to sleep pleasantly to wake no more on earth. It struck me at first as uncanny, not to say wicked, but I got over that feeling after a narrow escape or two, and I carried my little tin box just like a veteran would." —Washington Star.

John Bull and the Lion.

What could be more absurd than the conventional types of the nations—those types which we see and accept almost every day? England is peculiarly unfortunate. To express our national characteristics we have a choice of two figures, either a burly farmer or a lion. The British lion gets some little support from heraldry, and the national vanity is flattered by the analogy of our powers to those of the king of beasts. But otherwise how little appropriateness there is in representing us by an animal which most Englishmen have only seen in the degrading captivity of a menagerie, which has never within historical times inhabited their islands and about which they know almost nothing.

Considering also the chronically depressed state of British agriculture, it seems an ironical thing that the British nation should be typified by a farmer. If he were a manufacturer or a merchant or a seaman, there would be some appropriateness, but the stout eighteenth century John Bull with whom we are so familiar from allusion and picture is a being quite unknown to us in the flesh. He is just a good example of the time honored, inaccurate, conventional type. All vigor and suggestiveness have long departed from the figure. But we are too indolent to replace him.—London Globe.

New York Hospitality.

The hospitality of smaller places is rare if not unknown in New York. Hospitality there is different and tends to be swamped by numbers and even chilled into an apparent indifference that is really compelled by circumstances. Often it makes a brave fight and never wholly gives up, but it is a struggle against great odds. Not seldom it happens that the enormous aggravation of social and intellectual opportunities that confronts country people who come to live in New York so discourages them that they end in living narrower lives in the great city and seeing fewer people than in the smaller town from which they came. And if it does not discourage them it is apt to drive them too hard. A New Yorker who already had a house in town and another in the country near by excused himself for building a third in New Hampshire by saying: "In town or near town I never get away from engagements. I want a place where I can have some leisure, and leisure to a New Yorker means, of course, a chance to do some work." —Scribner's.

How He Makes Friends.

A Missouri paper says that Senator Cockrell keeps in closer touch with the people of his state than any other man in the senate. One of his habits, according to capitol gossip, is to read in the senate the name of every constituent who sends him a petition. Other senators content themselves with presenting petitions in an indefinite bunch, and in this impersonal fashion they are noted in The Congressional Record. Cockrell's way is different, and when The Record appears there are the names of his constituents, looking very large. Forthwith to each person thus distinguished goes a copy of The Record, which is shown with much pride at the country store or postoffice, and the voter is a friend of Cockrell for life.

A Valuable Face.

Jewett—Cutter has a terribly cadaverous appearance. He is not possessed of what would be classed a full countenance.

Morton—On the contrary, his is a regular hatchet face. But then he isn't ashamed of that. He rather prides himself upon it and for good reason. A lasso was thrown over his head by a cowboy out on the plains, but his face was so sharp that it cut the rope and so saved his life.

CRONJE SURROUNDED

Such Report Current in House of Commons.

CABINET OFFICIAL AUTHORITY.

Wyndham Would Only Say News Received Was Satisfactory—French Reported Between the Boers and Bloemfontein.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The war office announced that it had nothing further for publication from South Africa.

In the lobbies of the house of commons, however, it was rumored that General Cronje's army was surrounded, that General French had got between the Boer forces and Bloemfontein and that he was only awaiting reinforcements to close in on the enemy.

No confirmation of this rumor was obtainable, although the general idea was that the government had received important dispatches.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A member of the cabinet told H. W. Lucy that the war office had received a telegram announcing that General Cronje is hopelessly surrounded. Mr. Wyndham was beset by anxious members of the house, but would only reply that the government's only news was extremely satisfactory. This explanation of the government withholding good news is more confirmation and more details are awaited.

The situation as disclosed by correspondents over the Free State border is tantalizing to the public expectation. The elementary facts are that the Boers are trekking eastward toward Bloemfontein with slow moving baggage trains, and that they are pursued by Lord Kitchener, with General Kelly-Kenny's division. General MacDonald, with the Highlanders, made a forced march to the Koodoos Rand ford, and on Sunday pushed 20 miles eastward. General French left Kimberley Saturday, going east along the Modder river. General Kitchener is trying to outmarch and outflank the Boers, thus checking their retreat, if possible, and driving them back into the hands of MacDonald and French.

The war office message communicated to Mr. Lucy seems to indicate that Lord Kitchener has either got ahead of the Boers or is about to realize his plan, and that the war office awaits a decisive result.

Meanwhile, Commandant Delarey, with the Boers from Colesberg, is hanging onto the right flank of the British pursuing column, seeking to delay their movement and so to assist the Boer wagon trains to escape.

Students of topography think the Boers will hardly risk a fight until they get into the rough country, north of Bloemfontein.

GEN. BULLER HOLDS HLANGWANE HILL

Boers Retreated After the British Captured Monte Cristo—Managed to Carry Their Guns.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The Chieveley correspondent of The Daily News, telegraphing Feb. 19, said:

"We now occupy all the hills to the right of Colenso, on this side of the Tugela, including Hlangwane, which the Boers evacuated last night (Sunday)."

"This capture of Hlangwane hill is of great strategical importance, as the hill commands the flank of the Boer defenses at Colenso. A successful advance and the recapture of the railway may be expected."

The Daily Mail had the following dispatch, dated Feb. 19, from Pietermaritzburg:

It is reported that Sir Redvers Buller has captured Hlangwane hill. Large numbers of Free Staters have left to meet Lord Roberts' force. It is said that a number of Boer big guns have been taken back across the border.

CHIEVELEY, Feb. 20.—The Boers' line of fortresses is broken. The British have achieved a decided success in capturing the enemy's position on Monte Cristo. The Boers, however, effectively executed a retreat, removing their guns and convoy wagons. The British had comparatively few casualties.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The war office gave out a dispatch from General Buller, which contained the following:

"Chieveley Camp, Feb. 19.—Yesterday moved around the enemy's flank. The Queen's, who had bivouacked on the northern slope of Cingolo, crossed the Nek, and, supported by the rest of the Second brigade, under Hildyard, assaulted and took the southern end of Monte Cristo.

MAJOR GENERAL ARTHUR FITZROY HART.
[One of Buller's brigade commanders.]

"The Fourth brigade, on the left or western slope, and the Welsh Fusiliers, supported by the rest of the Sixth brigade, assaulted the eastern flank of the enemy's position, while the Second brigade cavalry, or the extreme right, watched the eastern slopes of Monte Cristo and drove back those of the enemy attempting to escape there from our artillery fire. Assaulted by heavy artillery fire on the front and flank and attacked on their flank and rear, the enemy made but slight resistance, and, abandoning their strong position, were driven across the Tugela. I have taken several camps, a wagon load of ammunition, several wagons of stores and supplies and a few prisoners.

"The weather has been intensely hot and the ground traversed was exceedingly difficult. But the energy and dash of the troops have been very pleasant to see. They have all done splendidly. The work of the irregular cavalry, the Queen's, the Scots Fusiliers and the Rifle brigade was, perhaps, most noticeable, while the excellent practice of the artillery and naval guns and the steadiness of the gunners, under, at times, very accurate fire, was remarkable. The accurate fire of the naval guns from Chieveley was of great assistance. Our casualties are not, I think, many."

FIGHTING AT RENSBURG.

Dispatch From Correspondent With the Boers Tells of Capture of Some Wiltshires.

LOURENZO MARQUES, Feb. 20.—A correspondent who was with the Boer forces in the attack upon Rensburg, gives further particulars regarding the capture of the Wiltshires. He said: "Commandant Peller, who arrived

GENERAL P. A. CRONJE.

first, found two companies of the Wiltshires and began attacking in the open. Soon after he was joined by a body of Free Staters, and together they drove the British back from the neighboring kopjes, capturing all but three.

"It is impossible to say exactly how many of the British were killed and wounded, but of the 200 Wiltshires, 142 were captured and of these 44 were wounded.

"The suffering of the wounded from heat and thirst was intense. The Burgers did their best to alleviate this, and many of the wounded were carried in blankets to Rensburg siding.

"At Reitfontein the British rear guard began shelling, thus compelling the federals to leave the wounded in order to repulse the attack. A federal Krupp gun replied effectively to the British cannonade. The Boers lost two killed and four wounded.

"They now occupy all the Rensburg positions formerly occupied by the British, whose rear guard is at Reitfontein, with the federals close up."

DALY IS TO TESTIFY.

Will Answer Clark—Witness' Excuse For Offering a Bribe—Clark on the Stand.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Senator Clark, of Montana, was again the star witness before the senate committee on privileges and elections.

Dr. Treacy, Justice Hunt's family physician, made a statement concerning his interviews with Justice Hunt, which corroborated the testimony of the justice in all essential details, except that his recollection was that $50,000 and not $100,000 was the amount mentioned by him as the price which the justice could get for having the Wellcome disbarment case thrown out of the state supreme court. He said that Justice Hunt was an intimate friend, and he asserted his motive to be, in taking the course he did, to test his ability to withstand the corrupting influence of money. He had received no funds from any source to pay the bribe suggested, and had been promised none for that purpose.

Mr. Clark necessarily went over much of the ground covered by him in his testimony Saturday. He was cross-examined by Mr. Campbell, and insisted that he had spent no money for corrupt purposes during the Montana senatorial campaign. He gave a detailed statement of expenditures for political purposes during the legislative and senatorial contests, which footed up, as Senator Turley announced, to $139,000. He declared that his only purpose in entering upon the campaign was the overthrow of Mr. Daly's rule in the state, which, he said, was so tyrannical that he would not desire to continue his residence in the state if it was to continue.

Mr. Campbell said that Mr. Daly would go on the stand in rebuttal. He is expected every day.

IN BEHALF OF MISSIONARIES.

Bishop Von Anzer to Visit Pope—Wants Europe to Act.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—Bishop Von Anzer, of Shan Tun, the well-known German missionary, arrived at Rome and, after an audience with the pope, will come to Berlin.

He will report to the pope that the imminent dangers now threatening the Catholic missions in China are due partly to the aggressive policy of Europe toward China since 1897 and partly to the anti-foreignism of the dowager empress.

The aim of Bishop Von Anzer is to induce all the European governments interested to join in an attempt to convince the Pekin government of the necessity of suppressing all combinations and demonstrations directed against foreigners and, if necessary, enforce this jointly.

STEEL CONCERNS TO MOVE.

Headquarters of National Steel and Tinplate to Be in New York.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Almost the entire office force in Chicago, of the American Tinplate company and the National Steel company, will be sent to New York next week, where the headquarters of the two concerns will be established.

The removal of the headquarters from Chicago to New York, which has been under discussion by the officials for some time, is said to be caused by the alleged heavy restrictions in the corporation laws of Illinois.

Marcel-Habert to Be Tried.

PARIS, Feb. 20.—The senate, as a high court, reassembled in order to try Deputy Marcel-Habert on the same charges as those upon which M. Deroulede was recently convicted, namely, attempting to lead troops upon the Elysee palace at the time of the funeral of the late President Faure.

Beaver Falls Firm Got It.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Penn Bridge company, of Beaver Falls, was the lowest bidder, at $29,737, for constructing a machine shop building for the Mare Island navy yard.

MISS WHEELER TO WED

Pennsylvanian Wins Heroic Girl's Hand.

LT. FISCUS IS THE LUCKY MAN.

Son of Ex-Treasurer and Ex-Sheriff Fiscus, of Armstrong County, Pa.—Now Stationed in the Philippines—Miss Wheeler En Route Home.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The announcement of the engagement of Lieutenant W. W. Fiscus, Nineteenth United States infantry, now stationed in the Philippines, to Miss Annie Wheeler, the youngest daughter of General Joe Wheeler, has just been received by the lieutenant's sister, Dr. Blanche F. Greaves, of this city. Lieutenant Fiscus' acquaintance with Miss Wheeler dates from the time he was a cadet at West Point, where General Wheeler's two sons were his classmates. Miss Wheeler frequently visited her brothers at the military academy, and in this way made the acquaintance of Cadet Fiscus.

MISS ANNIE EARLY WHEELER.

Fiscus served through the Santiago campaign and shortly after the surrender of Santiago was stricken with typhoid fever and was brought with other sufferers to New York. His life was despaired of, but he pulled through and he accompanied his regiment to the Philippines. The same transport which carried Lieutenant Fiscus to the Philippines also had as passengers General Wheeler and his daughter, Miss Annie Wheeler, who was going out as an army nurse.

Miss Wheeler and her father are now on their way to the United States on the transport Warren. The marriage will take place as soon as Lieutenant Fiscus can obtain leave of absence from duty in the Philippines. Lieutenant Fiscus is a son of W. W. Fiscus, who is well known in the western part of Pennsylvania, having been twice sheriff and once treasurer of Armstrong county.

EVENTS BRIEFLY NARRATED

The Erie railway has placed an order for eight passenger locomotives and 25 freight locomotives, which will weigh 90 tons each without the tender.

The Abbott-Downing company, of Concord, N. H., manufacturers of coaches, carriages and wagons, made an assignment on Saturday. The liabilities are $200,000 and the assets $600,000.

A Chicago dispatch says that the reorganization of the business of Armour & Co. into a corporation will be accomplished within a few days. It is said the capital will be about $20,000,000.

Contracts have already been made for vessels to carry 18,500,000 tons of iron ore down the lakes this year, exceeding all previous records.

A joint resolution was adopted by the Democratic legislature at Louisville, adjourning the body to meet at Frankfort.

"We now occupy all the hills to the right of Colenso, on this side of the Tugela, including Hlangwane, which the Boers evacuated last night (Sunday)."

"This capture of Hlangwane hill is of great strategical importance, as the hill commands the flank of the Boer defenses at Colenso. A successful advance and the recapture of the railway may be expected."

The Daily Mail had the following dispatch, dated Feb. 19, from Pietermaritzburg:

It is reported that Sir Redvers Buller has captured Hlangwane hill. Large numbers of Free Staters have left to meet Lord Roberts' force. It is said that a number of Boer big guns have been taken back across the border.

CHIEVELEY, Feb. 20.—The Boers' line of fortresses is broken. The British have achieved a decided success in capturing the enemy's position on Monte Cristo. The Boers, however, effectively executed a retreat, removing their guns and convoy wagons. The British had comparatively few casualties.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The war office gave out a dispatch from General Buller, which contained the following:

"Chieveley Camp, Feb. 19.—I yesterday moved around the enemy's flank. The Queen's, who had bivouacked on the northern slope of Cingolo, crossed the Nek, and, supported by the rest of the Second brigade, under Hildyard, assaulted and took the southern end of Monte Cristo.

MAJOR GENERAL ARTHUR FITZROY HART.
[One of Buller's brigade commanders.]

"The Fourth brigade, on the left or western slope, and the Welsh Fusiliers, supported by the rest of the Sixth brigade, assaulted the eastern flank of the enemy's position, while the Second brigade cavalry, or the extreme right, watched the eastern slopes of Monte Cristo and drove back those of the enemy attempting to escape there from our artillery fire. Assaulted by heavy artillery fire on the front and flank and attacked on their flank and rear, the enemy made but slight resistance, and, abandoning their strong position, were driven across the Tugela. I have taken several camps, a wagon load of ammunition, several wagons of stores and supplies and a few prisoners.

"The weather has been intensely hot and the ground traversed was exceedingly difficult. But the energy and dash of the troops have been very pleasant to see. They have all done splendidly. The work of the irregular cavalry, the Queen's, the Scots Fusiliers and the Rifle brigade was, perhaps, most noticeable, while the excellent practice of the artillery and naval guns and the steadiness of the gunners, under, at times, very accurate fire, was remarkable. The accurate fire of the naval guns from Chieveley was of great assistance. Our casualties are not, I think, many."

FIGHTING AT RENSBURG.

Dispatch From Correspondent With the Boers Tells of Capture of Some Wiltshires.

LOURENZO MARQUES, Feb. 20.—A correspondent who was with the Boer forces in the attack upon Rensburg, gives further particulars regarding the capture of the Wiltshires. He said: "Commandant Peller, who arrived

GENERAL P. A. CRONJE.

first, found two companies of the Wiltshires and began attacking in the open. Soon after he was joined by a body of Free Staters, and together they drove the British back from the neighboring kopjes, capturing all but three.

"It is impossible to say exactly how many of the British were killed and wounded, but of the 200 Wiltshires, 142 were captured and of these 44 were wounded.

"The suffering of the wounded from heat and thirst was intense. The Burghers did their best to alleviate this, and many of the wounded were carried in blankets to Rensburg siding.

"At Reitfontein the British rear guard began shelling, thus compelling the federals to leave the wounded in order to repulse the attack. A federal Krupp gun replied effectively to the British cannonade. The Boers lost two killed and four wounded.

"They now occupy all the Rensburg positions formerly occupied by the British, whose rear guard is at Reitfontein, with the federals close up."

DALY IS TO TESTIFY.

Will Answer Clark—Witness' Excuse For Offering a Bribe—Clark on the Stand.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Senator Clark, of Montana, was again the star witness before the senate committee on privileges and elections.

Dr. Treacy, Justice Hunt's family physician, made a statement concerning his interviews with Justice Hunt, which corroborated the testimony of the justice in all essential details, except that his recollection was that $50,000 and not $100,000 was the amount mentioned by him as the price which the justice could get for having the Wellcome disbarment case thrown out of the state supreme court. He said that Justice Hunt was an intimate friend, and he asserted his motive to be, in taking the course he did, to test his ability to withstand the corrupting influence of money. He had received no funds from any source to pay the bribe suggested, and had been promised none for that purpose.

Mr. Clark necessarily went over much of the ground covered by him in his testimony Saturday. He was cross-examined by Mr. Campbell, and insisted that he had spent no money for corrupt purposes during the Montana senatorial campaign. He gave a detailed statement of expenditures for political purposes during the legislative and senatorial contests, which footed up, as Senator Turley announced, to $139,000. He declared that his only purpose in entering upon the campaign was the overthrow of Mr. Daly's rule in the state, which, he said, was so tyrannical that he would not desire to continue his residence in the state if it was to continue.

Mr. Campbell said that Mr. Daly would go on the stand in rebuttal. He is expected every day.

IN BEHALF OF MISSIONARIES.

Bishop Von Anzer to Visit Pope—Wants Europe to Act.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—Bishop Von Anzer, of Shan Tun, the well-known German missionary, arrived at Rome and, after an audience with the pope, will come to Berlin.

He will report to the pope that the imminent dangers now threatening the Catholic missions in China are due partly to the aggressive policy of Europe toward China since 1897 and partly to the anti-foreignism of the dowager empress.

The aim of Bishop Von Anzer is to induce all the European governments interested to join in an attempt to convince the Pekin government of the necessity of suppressing all combinations and demonstrations directed against foreigners and, if necessary, enforce this jointly.

STEEL CONCERNS TO MOVE.

Headquarters of National Steel and Tinplate to Be in New York.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Almost the entire office force in Chicago, of the American Tinplate company and the National Steel company, will be sent to New York next week, where the headquarters of the two concerns will be established.

The removal of the headquarters from Chicago to New York, which has been under discussion by the officials for some time, is said to be caused by the alleged heavy restrictions in the corporation laws of Illinois.

Marcel-Habert to Be Tried.

PARIS, Feb. 20.—The senate, as a high court, reassembled in order to try Deputy Marcel-Habert on the same charges as those upon which M. Deroulede was recently convicted, namely, attempting to lead troops upon the Elysee palace at the time of the funeral of the late President Faure.

Son of Ex-Treasurer and Ex-Sheriff Fiscus, of Armstrong County, Pa.—Now Stationed in the Philippines—Miss Wheeler En Route Home.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The announcement of the engagement of Lieutenant W. W. Fiscus, Nineteenth United States infantry, now stationed in the Philippines, to Miss Annie Wheeler, the youngest daughter of General Joe Wheeler, has just been received by the lieutenant's sister, Dr. Blanche F. Greaves, of this city. Lieutenant Fiscus' acquaintance with Miss Wheeler dates from the time he was a cadet at West Point, where General Wheeler's two sons were his classmates. Miss Wheeler frequently visited her brothers at the military academy, and in this way made the acquaintance of Cadet Fiscus.

MISS ANNIE EARLY WHEELER.

Fiscus served through the Santiago campaign and shortly after the surrender of Santiago was stricken with typhoid fever and was brought with other sufferers to New York. His life was despaired of, but he pulled through and he accompanied his regiment to the Philippines. The same transport which carried Lieutenant Fiscus to the Philippines also had as passengers General Wheeler and his daughter, Miss Annie Wheeler, who was going out as an army nurse.

Miss Wheeler and her father are now on their way to the United States on the transport Warren. The marriage will take place as soon as Lieutenant Fiscus can obtain leave of absence from duty in the Philippines. Lieutenant Fiscus is a son of W. W. Fiscus, who is well known in the western part of Pennsylvania, having been twice sheriff and once treasurer of Armstrong county.

The Clark Bill.

The Cleveland Leader says: The opposition to the Clark local option bill relies mainly on efforts to intimidate men with political ambitions. There is little effort to argue the case against a measure which merely gives the people of temperance districts in cities a chance to get rid of the liquor traffic. There ought to be enough fearless Republicans in the Ohio Senate to pass the bill. The saloon was eliminated from politics several years ago, and it is a good idea to keep it out of politics.

The NEWS REVIEW had an article respecting the sale of this mill to a trust in Saturday's issue. The authority for that article was and is supposed to be absolutely reliable and truthful, and as he is in a position to know what he is talking about, this paper gave the story in good faith. The local sheet which records "ANCIENT HISTORY" had about the same story in its issue of Monday. We await developments. Property holders on the Chester side, in common with others specially interested in investments, are anxiously investigating affairs in connection with the rumors prevalent.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter of West Fifth street, who says: "If everyone receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's kidney pills, my advice is, go to Larkin's drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. A Three Cornered War.

When Colonel Cartwell was military governor of Norfolk under the Confederacy in 1862, he ordered the British consul to report for duty on the home guard. To this the Englishman objected on the ground of being consul at Norfolk.

"To what government?" asked Colonel Cartwell.

"To the United States government," was the reply.

"But you are in the Confederate States, and you must show papers accrediting you to the Confederate States of America," said the colonel.

"But my government doesn't recognize you as a government," said the consul.

"Very well, then; my government doesn't recognize you as consul," briskly retorted Colonel Cartwell. "Shoulder your musket and join your company."

At this the peacefully disposed consul threatened to have a gunboat come and bombard the place before he would serve.

"That's just what I'd like to see," returned the colonel cheerily, "for then the United States will fight you, as she claims that Norfolk is still part of the Union, and between England and the United States fighting we shall go free."

At last the consul appealed to Mr. Benjamin, the Confederate secretary of war, who ordered his exemption from military duty, and the "three cornered war" so desired by Colonel Cartwell never came to pass.—Youth's Companion.

Unique Wedding Present.

Most people know of the peculiar circumstances under which Robert Louis Stevenson won his wife. But even more romantic and astounding was the unique wedding gift he got with her.

When Stevenson met his future fate at Barbizon, a famous artists' resort near Paris, she was the wife of Mr. Osborne, an Oakland gentleman. The friendship thus formed led Stevenson to pay a visit to California. He arrived at Monterey in a dying condition, but the loving care of Mrs. Osborne and her sister, Nellie Van der Grift, gradually won him back to life. The nursing completed his infatuation for the lady—an infatuation which he did not pretend to conceal. Fortunately Osborne raised no objections. He not only agreed to the divorce, but with a magnanimity rarely excelled actually attended the wedding breakfast. There he found his opportunity.

Mrs. Stevenson's one source of regret was the positive loss of her son, Lloyd Osborne, whom, of course, the father had the right to claim. Osborne made a happy speech, felicitating the newly married couple, and wound up by offering the most original of wedding presents. "To the bride," he said, "I give that which of all things is nearest and dearest to her heart, her own son."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

English Officers Wear Armor.

Many officers of the British army are wearers of armor. As a general rule the mail is inclosed in a leather casing, which is sewed inside the tunic, so as to be invisible unless the garment is picked to pieces. And the same with helmets—a similar device is fixed in the lining, so as to give additional protection in case of need. Some officers are not above wearing mail vests underneath their tunics and perfectly oblivious of their comrades, who, although they may scoff in times of peace, would only be too glad to don one themselves when in the middle of hostilities. The majority of the maker's customers are officers, because the suits are very expensive, costing about 10 guineas each.—Regiment.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter of West Fifth street, who says: "If everyone receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's kidney pills, my advice is, go to Larkins' drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to anyone personally calling upon me."

A Three Cornered War.

When Colonel Cartwell was military governor of Norfolk under the Confederacy in 1862, he ordered the British consul to report for duty on the home guard. To this the Englishman objected on the ground of being consul at Norfolk.

"To what government?" asked Colonel Cartwell.

"To the United States government," was the reply.

"But you are in the Confederate states, and you must show papers accrediting you to the Confederate States of America," said the colonel.

"But my government doesn't recognize you as a government," said the consul.

"Very well, then; my government doesn't recognize you as consul," briskly retorted Colonel Cartwell. "Shoulder your musket and join your company."

At this the peacefully disposed consul threatened to have a gunboat come and bombard the place before he would serve.

"That's just what I'd like to see," returned the colonel cheerily. "for then the United States will fight you, as she claims that Norfolk is still part of the Union, and between England and the United States fighting we shall go free."

At last the consul appealed to Mr. Benjamin, the Confederate secretary of war, who ordered his exemption from military duty, and the "three cornered war" so desired by Colonel Cartwell never came to pass.—Youth's Companion.

Unique Wedding Present.

Most people know of the peculiar circumstances under which Robert Louis Stevenson won his wife. But even more romantic and astounding was the unique wedding gift he got with her.

When Stevenson met his future fate at Barbizon, a famous artists' resort near Paris, she was the wife of Mr. Osborne, an Oakland gentleman. The friendship thus formed led Stevenson to pay a visit to California. He arrived at Monterey in a dying condition, but the loving care of Mrs. Osborne and her sister, Nellie Van der Giff, gradually won him back to life. The nursing completed his infatuation for the lady—an infatuation which he did not pretend to conceal. Fortunately Osborne raised no objections. He not only agreed to the divorce, but with a magnanimity rarely excelled actually attended the wedding breakfast. There he found his opportunity.

Mrs. Stevenson's one source of regret was the positive loss of her son, Lloyd Osborne, whom, of course, the father had the right to claim. Osborne made a happy speech, felicitating the newly married couple, and wound up by offering the most original of wedding presents. "To the bride," he said, "I give that which of all things is nearest and dearest to her heart, her own son."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

English Officers Wear Armor.

Many officers of the British army are wearers of armor. As a general rule the mail is inclosed in a leather casing, which is sewed inside the tunic, so as to be invisible unless the garment is picked to pieces. And the same with helmets—a similar device is fixed in the lining, so as to give additional protection in case of need. Some officers are not above wearing mail vests underneath their tunics and perfectly oblivious of their comrades, who, although they may scoff in times of peace, would only be too glad to don one themselves when in the middle of hostilities. The majority of the maker's customers are officers, because the suits are very expensive, costing about 10 guineas each.—Regiment.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS

Are Scarce and Two More Were Named Last Night.

TREASURER DOUBLES HIS BOND

So the Board Can Get All That's Coming to It Quicker—Now $60,000 Instead of $30,000—A Half Hour Session Held Last Evening.

The same members who were at the last meeting of the Board of Education, held Jan. 22, were present last evening, namely, Messrs. Vodrey, Hill, Taggart and Murphy. Because one of the members had another meeting to attend, the meeting was called to order at 7:15 and lasted but half an hour.

Supt. Rayman reported that the new addition to the Grant street school had been opened and seven teachers are now employed in the school. This is all that will be needed this term, but an increase will be made in the number next fall.

Clerk Hill reported word had been received from the Slatington Bangor Slate Co., of Slatington, Pa., that the company had accepted the order of the board to furnish the slate for the new East End building.

Mr. Rayman reported substitute teachers were very scarce and asked that two more be appointed by the board. The names of Miss Jeannette Hill and Miss Mary E. Gladden were suggested by Mr. Rayman, and they were elected by the board, having passed the teachers' examination last Saturday.

Permission was granted Superintendent Rayman to attend the national superintendents' meeting at Chicago next week. He will leave for that place next Monday afternoon and will be gone the entire week.

The following bills were ordered paid: Watson & Sloan, $3 19; Andy Ratray, $9 09; Pennsylvania company, $1 01; Mrs. W. A. Beane, $4 04; Ohio Valley Gas company, $208 35; American Book company, $435 47; typewriter, $100; Bartlett & Co., $631; Crisis, $3 75; News Review, $2 40; Tribune, $3 50; Mrs. A. M. Davidson, $13 49; John Ryan, $2 20; Western Union Telegraph company, 32 cents; Ginn & Co., $8 90; John I. Hudson, $9; Claude Nease, $150; John Cain, $1 385; Lewis Brothers, $31 25; T. B. Murphy, $2 10; T. O. Timmons, $20; Peck Williamson company, $474; Diamond Hardware company, $1; Telephone company, $24 75; Z. B. Kinsey, $22 83; J. Jones, $4 55; Union Planing Mill company, $4 96; Wilson Stationery company, $26 75.

The following resolution, increasing the bond of the treasurer from $30,000 to $60,000, was presented by Mr. Murphy and adopted by the board:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the board it is necessary for the treasurer of the school funds to execute and file an additional bond, with the usual conditions and penalty, of $60,000 and that when his term of office expires his successors give bond with appended sureties in the sum of $60,000.

The bond was presented by Clerk Hill for Mr. S. T. Herbert and contained the following sureties: S. T. Herbert, Robert Hall, David Boyce, Wm. Cartwright, J. M. Kelly.

There is now due the school district from the county treasurer over $25,000. The law prevents the school treasurer having on hand school funds amounting to more than half the value of his bond. In order to get the money for deposit in city banks it became necessary for the treasurer to increase his bond to $60,000.

Mentioned as Usual.
Clara—Did the newspapers notice your papa at the banquet?

Clara—Well, mamma said she could not see his name in the list.
Freddie—No, but the list ends up with "and others." That means papa. They always mention him that way.—Tit-Bits.

THE BOOK COLLECTOR.

He Made a Swap Which Satisfied the Secondhand Dealer.

"It's astonishing how book collecting will blunt a man's conception of the rights of meum et tuum," said the proprietor of a delightful old secondhand store on the south side of the town. "I wouldn't trust a confirmed collector as far as I could throw Jackson square by the monument. They all consider themselves licensed privateers, and when one of them wants any particular volume and can't buy it the chances are it will mysteriously disappear the first time he pays you a visit. I am on to most of the tricks of the fraternity, however, and it takes a pretty smooth individual to secure any plunder in this shop."

"Only recently I circumvented an old gentleman in a manner that is apt to adhere to his memory for some time. He is a passionate admirer of Dickens and has a fine collection of early editions and books in general relating to the great novelist. One of his sets, a very handsome print with the original Cruikshank plates, is short one volume, the eighth. I have a copy of the same edition, and he has tried repeatedly to get me to break it so as to complete his own, but I have of course refused."

"Then I noticed that he began to drop in of afternoons with a book under his arm, looking up and down the shelves. The volume he carried bore a close external resemblance to the copy of Dickens he wanted, and I suspected at once that I would some day find them exchanged. Consequently I locked up the coveted volume 8 and substituted a worthless treatise on mathematics bound in the same manner. My visitor knew the exact location of the book on the shelf, and the other day I purposely gave him an opportunity to make the shift. It was done in a twinkling, and presently he strolled out. I haven't seen him since. The book he left was a very pretty copy of Kearsley I am well satisfied with the swap."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

THE LEADING ARTICLE.

Advent and Development of the Editorial in Newspapers.

"I know what 'leaders' are, for I have written them," said Benjamin Disraeli in the course of a speech in the house of commons, and, though all of us may not have written "leaders" for The Morning Post and other newspapers, like Disraeli, we all at least know the meaning of the term "leaders."

For more than 100 years after the publication of the first daily newspaper The Daily Courant, which consisted of a small sheet printed on one side only and made its appearance in London in March, 1702, the "dailies" confined themselves to what is perhaps the proper business of a newspaper, the publication of the largest possible amount of news, and made no attempt whatever to mold or direct public opinion.

At the opening of the nineteenth century "the leading article" first appeared in the morning papers. It was originally called the "leaded article," because of the "leads" or spaces introduced between the lines to spread out the article and give it an imposing appearance in order that it might at once attract the eye of even the most casual reader. After a time it was called "leading article" or "leader" or "editorial," names by which it is now universally known in newspaper offices.

At the beginning "leaders" were published only tentatively. Their publication was irregular. In form they were brief—we should call them "editorial paragraphs" now—and they were principally used to direct special attention to some important event recorded in the news columns. But 75 years ago they became a settled and regular feature of the daily newspaper and a potent agency for promoting opinions, political, religious and social.—Cornhill Magazine.

LEGISLATIVE.

So far 455 bills have been introduced in the state house of representatives and about 50, none of any great importance, have been passed. Of these about half have also been passed by the senate. Some 400 more bills are expected to be introduced. The judiciary committee, to whom the Clark local option bill was referred, will meet tomorrow evening. The bill will not be reported to the senate until next week. There is some talk that it will be amended in the senate, which will necessitate its return to the house for concurrence or rejection. The opponents of the bill then hope to kill it, but its supporters are confident it will go through all right.

REMEYNI CONCERT.

Here is an evening of genuine delight for music lovers. Adrienne Remenyi is the talented daughter of a talented father. The young lady was educated in Paris. Her voice is a pure soprano. She carried great audiences by storm in New York City and has won the hearts of music lovers whenever and wherever she has appeared. Her lamented father, the world famous violinist, paid us a visit during his life-time, and charmed, with his wonderful skill, delighted audiences at our Grand Opera House. You should not fail to hear his now famous daughter, who will appear at the Grand on Friday night, February 23, in company with a noted violinist and an equally noted pianist, artists par excellence.

TRUE REPUBLICAN VOTERS:

With your magnificent vote in East Liverpool, you have full control of the city and its interests. You have a great responsibility upon you. How WILL YOU MAKE USE OF THE POWER IN YOUR HANDS?

Unprincipled and evil men, CARING NOT A BAUBEE FOR ANY PARTY, Republican, Democratic or Prohibition, caring only to carry out their wicked and selfish purposes, have attached themselves, leech-like, to the Republican party, and are using the Grand Old Party for the carrying out of their base purposes.

These fellows, these leeches, have men in training for the berth of mayor, marshal and councilmen. They are holding meetings every night and aim to defeat the will and purpose of good and law-abiding citizens. Will you permit such chicanery? Will you permit this vicious minority to rule?

Can you defeat these evil and vicious men? Certainly you can. How? Agitate! Talk to your neighbor! Talk to your friends! Talk to the community at large! Go to the polls! Cast your ballot for good and true men! You have such men on your ticket! Vote for them. Don't cast a vote for men who have been TRIED and found LACKING!

Remember your taxes! Remember foolish and vicious and careless legislation! Remember unnecessary legal contests and the placing of bad men on your police force—lawbreakers and not law-enforcers?

Go to the polls next Saturday. Cast your ballot. Don't let a vote for righteousness be lost. Take your neighbor with you. See that men are elected who have not an ITCHING PALM—men who cannot be BOUGHT and SOLD like cattle.

Is it possible that bribes are ever offered to councilmen in this city? Yea,

ROSS MEADOWS

Is the name of a farm situated 1 1/2 miles from the city limits, at the junction of Liverpool and Lisbon and Wellsville and Cannons Mills public roads. The surface is comparatively level and the farm is said to be one of the "best lying" in the county. We are subdividing it into 2 1/2 acre plots. You can buy as much as you want. Just the place for a country home. Prices per acre are low. Call at office and see plots.

verily. In a single instance, for a single purchase, one councilman was offered the nice little figure of $650.00 for his vote and influence. Can we PROVE this statement. Yea, verily; and the councilman is still living. He turned the briber down and saved the city $750.00. We know whereof we speak. Put men in council who will not be bribed.

MR. METSCH SPEAKS.

Like the Fair and Square Man That He Is, He Defies Misrepresentation.

Christian Metsch is a fair and square man, and his character and standing in this section of country is unimpeachable. He hates a backbiter and a slanderer. He is making a clean canvass in his battle for mayor, and is making not a shadow of attack upon any of his competitors in the mayoralty race. The following statement from our townsman will set all false rumors and idle reports at rest:

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO,
February 20, 1900.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—I don't like misrepresentation. As a rule I let slanderers and falsifiers severely alone, and let my life speak for itself. But my friends desire that I shall speak to the public respecting ugly rumors that my political enemies have been disseminating and giving circulation, in the endeavor to, it possible, injure me in my race for the nomination to the berth of mayor of East Liverpool, on the Republican ticket. On my honor as a man and citizen, I have not spent a single penny in the endeavor to secure votes for myself, save the legitimate expenses asked by the Republican executive committee, my card in the city papers and the tickets made use of for a canvass among my friends and acquaintances and the voters of the city.

Respectfully,

CHRISTIAN METSCH.

Mr. Metsch's card has the right ring. He is known and respected far and wide and those who are so basely attempting to vilify and slander him will find that they have made use of a boomerang.

HAYES DROPPED DEAD

His Death Is Supposed to Be the Result of a Fight.

AN INQUEST WILL BE HELD

And an Effort Will Be Made to Discover Who the Parties Were With Whom Hayes Had His Fight—A Post-Mortem Examination Was Held This Morning.

Charles Hayes dropped dead this morning, and it is thought his death may be due to wounds received in a fight several days ago.

Hayes got up this morning and went to the shop of Samuel Frost, Kossuth street, where he is employed. He was seen trying to open the door and then he fell. A. D. Martin, who was passing, saw him fall, and quickly rushed to the spot. It took but a glance for him to observe that Hayes was seriously ill and he called help. A physician was sent for, but when he arrived Hayes was beyond earthly help. Squire Rose was notified and later the case was called to the attention of the trustees, who had the body removed to the undertaking establishment of John Rinehart.

Coroner Straughn was notified, but he was too ill to hold an inquest and Prosecuting Attorney Brooks was notified of the circumstances, and he stated that an inquest and post mortem should be held. The inquest will be conducted by Squire Rose tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

Hayes was aged about 50 years and came to this city about one year ago. He was a quiet, inoffensive sort of a man, and had very little to say about himself. He roomed at John Hoffman's, corner Fourth and Market streets, but had been there only one week. When he arrived there he had a black eye and looked as if he had been in a fight. He has a wife living at Bathport or Newport, Staffordshire, Eng. Mr. Frost, for whom Hayes worked, knew but little about him and could not tell anything about the fight. There is absolutely no clue to the parties with whom Hayes had the trouble.

Dr. W. A. Hobbs and Dr. G. P. Ikirt this morning held a post mortem examination, but refused to state the result of the examination until after the inquest had been held.

The remains were interred in River-view cemetery this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

FINED HIM.

Bert Johnson Was Fined For Trying to Buy Liquor From John Michaels.

John Michaels yesterday, in the court of Squire Rose, made complaint against Bert Johnson. Johnson is a minor, and Michaels says he has been coming in his saloon and buying liquor. The squire fined him $3 and costs.

THE best monument to Goebel will be a decent election law in Kentucky.

SENATOR CLARK seems to have got full value in trouble for that $115,000.

AFTER the Democracy gets through extending sympathy to the Filipinos and Boers it ought to extend a little to itself.

A CHICAGO paper advocates a boycott of trust goods. What—starve and go without light, heat, house, shoes, clothing, and everything except crockery?

Field Marshal Roberts was on his way to take charge of the campaign against the Boers in 1881 after Majuba hill, when Gladstone ordered the cessation of hostilities. Next morning Jeff brought the trousers back, with a big grease spot still prominent on one knee. "Can't you get that spot out?" said the owner of the trousers. "No, sah."

"Did you try turpentine?" "Fo' de Lawd, I done saccharated 'em wid turpentine."

Did a Wholesale Business.

An Englishman hailing from the north went into the Chatham hotel, in Paris, recently and cautiously asked the price of a whisky.

"One franc, sir," replied the bartender.

"And a whisky and soda?"

"One franc, sir. All drinks are the same price."

The Englishman sat down and, to his astonishment, found that the place was run on American lines and that the customers helped themselves at their own discretion. He punished that bottle of whisky till it was nearly empty. As he went out he paid down his franc, but the manager called him back and said, "You have forgotten your change."

"I thought that the drink was a franc?"

"That is so, sir," was the reply. "That is the retail price, but there is a reduction when you buy wholesale." And he handed back 5 sous.—London Chronicle.

There was a small crowd of central committeemen at the meeting last night but there were plenty of candidates and the session didn't let out until 10:35.

Garner and Russell Heddleson were announced, but Heddleson will withdraw. Owen D. Nice and John Bossen will make the run in the Second and S. J. Cripps and August Freymark are the Third ward candidates. The justly celebrated Fourth ward has three candidates for the one office in D. M. McLane, G. W. Ashbaugh and Michael McGeever. In the Fifth ward the candidates are James W. Jameson, Dr. R. J. Marshall and J. L. Arnold.

Only a Few Assessors.

The candidates for assessors are: First ward, R. L. McKenty; Second ward, Sylvester Kinsey; Third ward, J. O. Allison, Henry Deitz; Fourth ward, W. H. Gaston; Fifth ward, Grant McDade; township, W. S. McBane.

THE INSPECTORS.

The Candidates Held an Election of Their Own and Selected Representatives.

The next business to be transacted was the selection of the inspectors, and as only three to a precinct are allowed, it was necessary for the candidates to have an election. Candidates were numerous, and in some precincts as high as nine names were suggested. Every candidate was given a chance to vote and the result was as follows:

First ward—First precinct, J. H. Brookes, James H. Smith, George E. Davidson; second precinct, Ed. Ryan, Henry Welsh, Ed. Green.

Second ward—First precinct, R. G. Thompson, Will McGraw, Ben Kinney; second precinct, Pat Ryan, Will Tritt, Frank Dickey.

The candidates were just one hour and thirty-five minutes selecting the inspectors.

The central committee ratified the action of the candidates and the inspectors will get their satisfaction from the chairman and secretary of the committee. They will be permitted to inspect the counting of the votes only.

A SLIGHT KICK.

A Large Number of the Candidates Wanted to Come First on the Ticket.

After the names of the inspectors had been filed a motion was made that the candidates be placed on the ticket in the order in which they had filed their names with Clerk Hanley. Immediately there was a kick from the candidates, and an amendment to the motion was suggested by Will Randolph, who thought the candidates should draw lots. The amendment was voted down and the man who got his name in first will be first on the ticket. This has been the custom of the committee for a number of years.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

The Central Committee Transact Business Without the Aid of Outsiders.

The central committee then went into executive session and some discussion was had in regard to the rules for conducting the primary. It was finally decided to abide by the rules adopted by the county committee. A committee was appointed to prepare the ballots and to award the same to the lowest bidder. All the candidates are privileged to print sample ballots if they so desire. The election will take place between 12:30 and 6:30 city time.

BIG BUSINESS DONE BY JUDGE P. M. SMITH

During His Four Years' Service on the Bench in Common Pleas Court.

LISBON, Feb. 20.—[Special]—Judge Smith retires from the common pleas bench today, after occupying the position four years and two months. To give the public an idea of the amount of business transacted in common pleas court it is found on examination that when the judge assumed his duties, Dec. 16, 1895, there were 470 civil cases pending on the trial docket; 1,788 cases were filed during his term and 1,980 cases were disposed of, leaving now on the trial docket 278 civil cases. In addition 1,012 criminal cases were disposed of during that term. It will be observed from this statement that while the business of the court has been increasing yearly, in the amount of litigation, the number of civil cases pending has been reduced by 192.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Representative Richardson (Tenn.), the minority leader of the house, after consultation with some of his Democratic colleagues, introduced in the house two resolutions aimed at the sugar trust.

The first is as follows:

Whereas, The prices of sugars have recently several times been advanced, manufacturers in each instance having agreed upon the same price per pound, which is prima facie evidence that a trust or combination exists for the purpose of destroying competition in order that enormous profits may be realized; the American Sugar Refining company, of New Jersey having for many years paid 18 per cent annually in dividends upon $30,000,000 of common stock,

Therefore, resolved, that sugars manufactured by the said American Sugar Refining company, of New Jersey, and all other manufacturers in this country shall, after six months from the passage of this act, be prohibited by the interstate commerce commission from being transported, in any manner whatsoever from one state to another until the said commission are satisfied that sugars offered for interstate transportation have not yielded a profit to the manufacturers thereof of more than 4 per cent in excess of the cost of the same, which shall be ascertained in such manner as the said commission in its discretion may determine.

The second provides that

Whereas, A monopoly exists among sugar manufacturers, and in consequence enormous profits are being realized; therefore,

Resolved, That from and after the passage of this resolution, all kinds of sugars, molasses and everything entering into the manufacture of sugars shall be admitted free of duty from Porto Rico, Cuba and the Hawaiian Islands.

Mr. Richardson, speaking of these resolutions, said:

"The interstate commerce commission, under the constitution as interpreted by the supreme court in the Addyston Pipe and Steel Company and the E. C. Knight Company cases, has the power to refuse interstate transportation to sugars and other manufactured articles which produce enormous profits through monopolistic control, until the profits on such goods have been brought within fair and reasonable limits, and when the necessities of life are involved as in sugars, if not in all other manufactured articles controlled by monopolies, public sentiment will sustain the commission in the exercise of such power. In order, however, through a specific governmental enactment to make it mandatory for the said commission to exercise that power, I have offered this non-partisan resolution."

PORTO RICAN TARIFF WAS UNDER DEBATE.

Payne Explained the Bill—Richardson Spoke For and Dalzell Against the Measure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Debate upon the Porto Rican tariff bill, which is to continue throughout the week and possibly longer, opened in the house. On all hands it is agreed that this bill, though it applies only to Porto Rico, involving as it does the question of the power to govern our new possessions outside the limitations of the constitution is the most important measure which will come before this congress. Interest in the bill is intense among the members on both sides and there is urgent demand for time. The Democrats are solidly arrayed against the measure and they will have powerful support from the Republican side in Mr. McCall, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, both able and forceful debaters. How far the Republican disaffection will extend, or whether it will endanger the bill, it is impossible to say at this time.

Mr. Payne, the floor leader of a majority, refused to agree that a vote should be taken upon a substitute to be offered by the minority. This substitute, which has not yet been framed, will be in substance the bill originally introduced by Mr. Payne, providing for free trade with Porto Rico, with the extension of customs and revenue laws of the United States over the island.

The debate lacked exciting features. It was in the nature of a long range bombardment before the clash of the contending forces in battle. Mr. Payne opened with a general argument in support of the bill, going largely into the material side of the situation which the bill is designed to relieve. Mr. Richardson, the Democratic leader, joined issue upon the power of congress to enact the proposed legislation, and Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, backed up Mr. Payne with a constitutional and legal argument. All three were listened to with close attention.

Mr. Richardson (Tenn.) the leader of the minority, made the opening argument in opposition to the measure. "I am not an alarmist," said he, "but in my judgment the pending bill is more dangerous to the liberties of the people of this republic than any measure before seriously presented to the American congress. It will prove far reaching in its provisions and disastrous in the results that must of necessity follow if it should be enacted into law than any act ever passed by congress."

"The bill is framed upon the idea and assumption that congress enters upon the government of Porto Rico unrestrained by the provisions of the constitution. This we deny. Those of us who oppose this measure, I believe, without exception, maintain that the bill cannot be enacted into law without a total disregard and violation of not simply the spirit, but the express letter of the constitution."

Mr. Dalzell (Pa.), second ranking majority member of the ways and means committee, followed in a close legal and constitutional argument in support of the contention of the majority that the constitution did not extend over our new possessions.

Turning to the question of the consent of the governed, Mr. Dalzell asserted that in a representative republic the right to govern did not depend on the consent of the governed. The methods of government prescribed by the principles of Anglican liberty as practiced in the United States would be grotesque in the Philippine islands and would bring on their people no advantage. They would be in point of fact impossible of exercise.

"The guarantees of liberty," he concluded, "do not exist alone in the constitution of the United States. They do not depend upon the great interest for their strength and perpetuity. They would continue to live and flourish if that constitution were annihilated. They are the indestructible heritage of humanity."

EXPLAINED THE HAWAIIAN BILL.

Cullom Spoke in Senate—Debate on Government of Islands.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The senate, after a long discussion, the resolution offered by Mr. Hale was adopted, calling upon the committee of the District of Columbia for information as to why the law of congress relating to telephone charges had not been enforced and practically was inoperative.

The debate developed into one of constitutional construction and the right of congress to legislate for the territories. The discussion finally turned on the authority of congress at its pleasure to extend or withhold the constitution to the territory acquired by the United States.

The bill providing a government for the territory of Hawaii was under consideration, Mr. Cullom in charge of the measure, explaining in detail its provisions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Republican caucus of the senate discussed the order of business in the senate, deciding to take up the bill providing a government for Porto Rico next after the disposal of the Hawaiian bill.

Attention was called to the resolution for seating Senator Quay, but no action was taken upon it, the suggestion being made that, as it is a privileged question, it can be taken up at any time. It was also decided to have Republicans succeed Democrats in a number of appointments in the senate.

AGAINST SUGAR TRUST

Richardson Introduced Resolutions in House.

SAN MOVE WAS NON-PARTISAN.

He Declared He Acted For the Purpose of Making It Mandatory on Interstate Commerce Commission to Act Under Recent Court Decisions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Representative Richardson (Tenn.), the minority leader of the house, after consultation with some of his Democratic colleagues, introduced in the house two resolutions aimed at the sugar trust.

The first is as follows:

Whereas, The prices of sugars have recently several times been advanced, manufacturers in each instance having agreed upon the same price per pound, which is prima facie evidence that a trust or combination exists for the purpose of destroying competition in order that enormous profits may be realized; and the American Sugar Refining Company, of New Jersey having for many years paid 18 per cent annually in dividends upon $30,000,000 of common stock,

Therefore, resolved, that sugars manufactured by the said American Sugar Refining Company, of New Jersey, and all other manufacturers in this country shall, after six months from the passage of this act, be prohibited by the interstate commerce commission from being transported, in any manner whatsoever from one state to another until the said commission are satisfied that sugars offered for interstate transportation have not yielded a profit to the manufacturers thereof of more than 4 per cent in excess of the cost of the same, which shall be ascertained in such manner as the said commission in its discretion may determine.

The second provides that

Whereas, A monopoly exists among sugar manufacturers, and in consequence enormous profits are being realized; therefore,

Resolved, That from and after the passage of this resolution, all kinds of sugars, molasses and everything entering into the manufacture of sugars shall be admitted free of duty from Porto Rico, Cuba and the Hawaiian Islands.

Mr. Richardson, speaking of these resolutions, said:

"The interstate commerce commission, under the constitution as interpreted by the supreme court in the Addyston Pipe and Steel Company and the F. C. Knight Company cases, has the power to refuse interstate transportation to sugars and other manufactured articles which produce enormous profits through monopolistic control, until the profits on such goods have been brought within fair and reasonable limits, and when the necessities of life are involved as in sugars, if not in all other manufactured articles controlled by monopolies, public sentiment will sustain the commission in the exercise of such power. In order, however, through a specific governmental enactment to make it mandatory for the said commission to exercise that power, I have offered this non-partisan resolution."

PORTO RICAN TARIFF WAS UNDER DEBATE.

Payne Explained the Bill—Richardson Spoke For and Dalzell Against the Measure.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Debate upon the Porto Rican tariff bill, which is to continue throughout the week and possibly longer, opened in the house. On all hands it is agreed that this bill, though it applies only to Porto Rico, involving as it does the question of the power to govern our new possessions outside the limitations of the constitution is the most important measure which will come before this congress. Interest in the bill is intense among the members on both sides and there is urgent demand for time. The Democrats are solidly arrayed against the measure and they will have powerful support from the Republican side in Mr. McCall, of Massachusetts, and Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, both able and forceful debaters. How far the Republican disaffection will extend, or whether it will endanger the bill, it is impossible to say at this time.

Mr. Payne, the floor leader of the majority, refused to agree that a vote should be taken upon a substitute to be offered by the minority. This substitute, which has not yet been framed, will be in substance the bill originally introduced by Mr. Payne, providing for free trade with Porto Rico, with the extension of customs and revenue laws of the United States over the island.

The debate lacked exciting features. It was in the nature of a long range bombardment before the clash of the contending forces in battle: Mr. Payne opened with a general argument in support of the bill, going largely into the material side of the situation which the bill is designed to relieve. Mr. Richardson, the Democratic leader, joined issue upon the power of congress to enact the proposed legislation, and Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, backed up Mr. Payne with a constitutional and legal argument. All three were listened to with close attention.

Mr. Richardson (Tenn.) the leader of the minority, made the opening argument in opposition to the measure. "I am not an alarmist," said he, "but in my judgment the pending bill is more dangerous to the liberties of the people of this republic than any measure before seriously presented to the American congress. It will prove far reaching in its provisions and disastrous in the results that must of necessity follow if it should be enacted into law than any act ever passed by congress."

"The bill is framed upon the idea and assumption that congress enters upon the government of Porto Rico unrestrained by the provisions of the constitution. This we deny. Those of us who oppose this measure, I believe, without exception, maintain that the bill cannot be enacted into law without a total disregard and violation of not simply the spirit, but the express letter of the constitution."

Mr. Dalzell (Pa.), second ranking majority member of the ways and means committee, followed in a close legal and constitutional argument in support of the contention of the majority that the constitution did not extend over our new possessions.

Turning to the question of the consent of the governed, Mr. Dalzell asserted that in a representative republic the right to govern did not depend on the consent of the governed. The methods of government prescribed by the principles of Anglican liberty as practiced in the United States would be grotesque in the Philippine islands and would bring on their people no advantage. They would be in point of fact impossible of exercise.

"The guarantees of liberty," he concluded, do not exist alone in the constitution of the United States. They do not depend upon the great interest for their strength and perpetuity. They would continue to live and flourish if that constitution were annihilated. They are the indestructible heritage of humanity."

EXPLAINED THE HAWAIIAN BILL.

Cullom Spoke In Senate—Debate on Government of Islands.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The senate, after a long discussion, the resolution offered by Mr. Hale was adopted, calling upon the committee of the District of Columbia for information as to why the law of congress relating to telephone charges had not been enforced and practically was inoperative.

The debate developed into one of constitutional construction and the right of congress to legislate for the territories. The discussion finally turned on the authority of congress at its pleasure to extend or withhold the constitution to the territory acquired by the United States.

The bill providing a government for the territory of Hawaii was under consideration, Mr. Cullom in charge of the measure, explaining in detail its provisions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Republican caucus of the senate discussed the order of business in the senate, deciding to take up the bill providing a government for Porto Rico next after the disposal of the Hawaiian bill.

Attention was called to the resolution for seating Senator Quay, but no action was taken upon it, the suggestion being made that, as it is a privileged question, it can be taken up at any time. It was also decided to have Republicans succeed Democrats in a number of appointments in the senate.

Pennsylvania Depressed by Report of New Car Trust Some Other Features of Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The outside public still refused to manifest any interest in the stock market Monday and operations continued wholly in the hands of professional traders. This element made an attempt to force a continuance of last week's reaction, using as their main argument the drain being made upon the cash resources of the banks. Monday's statement of sub-treasury operations showed a loss already since Friday to that institution of $1,421,000. This showing helped the bears in an early raid on the market which wiped out the opening gains and carried prices generally below Saturday's closing level.

One or two stocks suffered from individual causes and helped on the reaction. Pennsylvania was depressed on reports of a new car trust involving many million dollars. The bears did not succeed in bringing out any large offerings and were driven to cover on the development of aggressive strength in several stocks. The most potent factor in the rally was the very large increase in earnings for the second week in February shown by a number of railroads. Norfolk and Western made the most striking exhibit, with an increase over the corresponding period of last year of $133,858, which is very nearly 96 per cent. This resulted in very large absorption of the stock at an extreme advance of 2 1/4, and had a sympathetic effect on all the bituminous coal carrying roads, contributing to the rally in Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio. Toledo and Ohio Central showed an increase in earnings of 75 per cent for the second week in February. These evidences of the large demand for bituminous coal were coupled with reports of increasing use of anthracite in steam production because of difficulty in obtaining soft coal.

Dealings were not on a large scale and the market fell very dull before the close, but held quite firm near the top.

Business in bonds showed some falling off in volume and price changes were mixed. Total sales, par value, $1,985,000. United States old 6s and 5s advanced 1/8 and the 2s 1/2 in the bid price.

Chicago Wheat Market.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Corn, sold to a standstill without weakening, reacted on covering by shorts Monday and closed strong, May 3/4 of a cent over Saturday. Wheat was easy early, but reacted with corn and unfavorable weather in France, May closing firm 1/4 of a cent up. Oats closed a shade and provisions 2 1/2 to 7 1/2 @ 10 cents better.

PATENT OFFICE IN GOOD SHAPE.

Money Received and Number of Patents Issued Very Large.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The annual report of the commissioner of patents for the year ending Dec. 31, 1899, shows that the total receipts of the office amounted to $1,325,457, a sum but twice exceeded since 1836. After deducting the expenditures for the year there was a surplus of $113,673.

The patent office has now paid into the treasury $5,086,649 more than it has drawn out. The number of patents issued, including designs and reissues, was 25,527, a number but once exceeded. The number of patents expiring during the year was 18,133.

STONE'S RIGHT TO VETO.

Case Delayed Until Next Summer and Maybe Later.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—The supreme court rescinded the order previously made fixing the 28th inst. for the argument on the question of the right of the governor to veto resolutions passed by the legislature to submit constitutional amendments to the vote of the people.

This action was taken on the petition of M. E. Olmsted and W. U. Hensel, that they could not be present on that date.

FOR A RESERVE SOLDIERY.

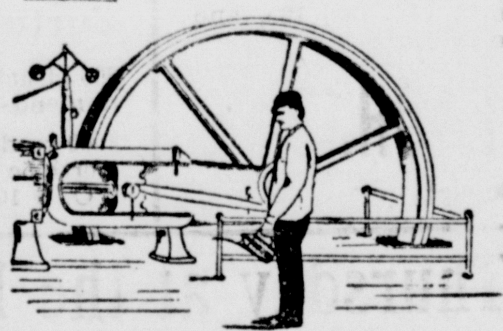

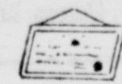

Secretary Root Placed His Plan Under General Ludlow's Charge.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Secretary Root turned over to General Ludlow his plan to secure the creation of a reserve list of persons in civil life who are fully equipped for instant military service.

General Ludlow has been instructed to work out the details of the plan in order that the war department may be enabled to submit a tangible operative scheme for the approval of congress, which body must supply certain legisla-

You have been in the power house of some great plant of machinery. Did it occur to you that your body was a more wonderful machine?

In the term of a natural life the heart beats three thousand million times and with a pressure of thirteen pounds to the stroke, lifts in that time, half a million tons of blood. What care are you taking of this wonderful machine?

Shortness of breath, buzzing in the ears, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, stomach trouble, indigestion are only some of the evidences that the machinery is undergoing a strain which sooner or later will break it down.

What the lubricant is to the machine of iron, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is to the machine of flesh and blood. It reduces friction to a minimum and keeps the great organs in proper running order. It does this by healing diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and increasing the flow of pure and healthy blood.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets' a year ago this spring and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Broadwater Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief, as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to 125 pounds and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly 160 and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. Use them with the "Discovery" when a pill is required.

The secretary's purpose is to have the military schools and colleges of the country brought into close touch with the regular army and track kept of them when they go into civil life, especially if they join the national guard.

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

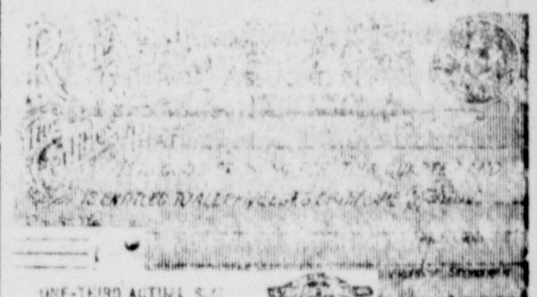

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

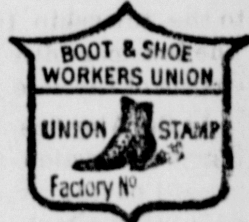

PATENT OFFICE CLERKS. This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker label:

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER. Good advice: every month's money in your left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool (are shown to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

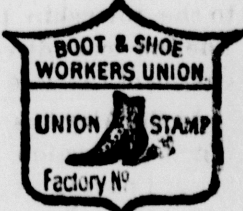

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

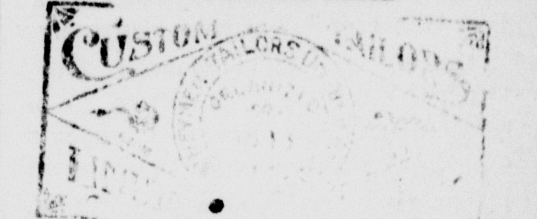

Look for the Union Label on every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

THE REGENT DIAMOND.

It Is Acknowledged the Most Perfect Brilliant in Existence.

The "Pitt" (or "Regent," as it was afterward called) is the most perfect brilliant in existence, and its history is also very remarkable. It is said to have been found by a slave in the Partea mines in 1701, who to retain his treasure cut a hole in the calf of his leg, in which he concealed it, although it is more probable he secreted it among the bandages. The slave escaped to the coast with his find, where he encountered an English skipper, whom he made his confidant, offering, indeed, to bestow upon him the stone in return for his liberty. The mariner, apparently consenting to the slave's proposal, took him out to sea and when there drowned him, after obtaining possession of the diamond. Disposing of the gem to a diamond merchant for £1,000, it is said the man afterward hanged himself in a fit of remorse.

Mr. Pitt, governor of Fort St. George and great-grandfather of the illustrious William Pitt, became the next possessor of this valuable stone, weighing 410 carats, for £20,000. He sent it to London, where he had it very skillfully cut at a cost of £5,000, the process occupying two years. Pitt appears to have found his diamond no very enviable possession, for, after refuting the calumnies of his enemies, who had charged him with having obtained it by unfair means, he was so haunted by the fear of being robbed that he never slept two nights consecutively under the same roof, never gave notice of his arrival in or departure from town and went about mysteriously disguised. He must necessarily have felt greatly relieved when he parted with the diamond to the Duc d'Orleans, regent during the minority of Louis XV, king of France, in 1717 for the sum of £135,000.—Chambers' Journal.

MINERS AND MORPHINE.

A Necessary Custom Which Is Not Pleasant to Contemplate.

"When I was in the northwest," said a gentleman with some money invested in mines, "I employed a prospector to go out into the mountains looking for properties which had been recommended to me. One day he was to have gone from our camp over into a very rough and rocky district, but when evening came he reported that he hadn't made the trip.

"Why not?" I inquired.

"Because I didn't have my morphine with me," he responded in a very matter of fact manner.

"Morphine?" said I in astonishment. "What has that got to do with it? You are not a morphine fiend, are you?"

"Not as much of a one as you are a tenderfoot," he laughed and proceeded to inform me that every prospector who knew his business always carried with him enough morphine to kill a man easily and that he did so in order to end himself quickly in case of an accident which would disable him far away from assistance. There were many instances of prospectors falling over cliffs and crippling themselves or breaking a leg in a hole among the rocks or rendering themselves helpless in some other way, and death was sure to follow by starvation or freezing or in some sections by being devoured by wolves or other wild animals. In order to prevent such a horrible death as any of these the prospector simplified matters by always carrying a little packet of morphine, which not only quieted the pain of the hurt he had sustained, but put him to sleep pleasantly to wake no more on earth. It struck me at first as uncanny, not to say wicked, but I got over that feeling after a narrow escape or two, and I carried my little tin box just like a veteran would."—Washington Star.

John Bull and the Lion.

What could be more absurd than the conventional types of the nations—those types which we see and accept almost every day? England is peculiarly unfortunate. To express our national characteristics we have a choice of two figures, either a burly farmer or a lion. The British lion gets some little support from heraldry, and the national vanity is flattered by the analogy of our powers to those of the king of beasts. But otherwise how little appropriateness there is in representing us by an animal which most Englishmen have only seen in the degrading captivity of a menagerie, which has never within historical times inhabited their islands and about which they know almost nothing.

Considering also the chronically depressed state of British agriculture, it seems an ironical thing that the British nation should be typified by a farmer. If he were a manufacturer or a merchant or a seaman, there would be some appropriateness, but the stout eighteenth century John Bull with whom we are so familiar from allusion and picture is a being quite unknown to us in the flesh. He is just a good example of the time honored, inaccurate, conventional type. All vigor and suggestiveness have long departed from the figure. But we are too indolent to replace him.—London Globe.

New York Hospitality.

The hospitality of smaller places is rare if not unknown in New York. Hospitality there is different and tends to be swamped by numbers and even chilled into an apparent indifference that is really compelled by circumstances. Often it makes a brave fight and never wholly gives up, but it is a struggle against great odds. Not seldom it happens that the enormous aggravation of social and intellectual opportunities that confronts country people who come to live in New York so discourages them that they end in living narrower lives in the great city and seeing fewer people than in the smaller town from which they came. And if it does not discourage them it is apt to drive them too hard. A New Yorker who already had a house in town and another in the country near by excused himself for building a third in New Hampshire by saying: "In town or near town I never get away from engagements. I want a place where I can have some leisure, and leisure to a New Yorker means, of course, a chance to do some work."—Scrivener's.

How He Makes Friends.

A Missouri paper says that Senator Cockrell keeps in closer touch with the people of his state than any other man in the senate. One of his habits, according to capitol gossip, is to read in the senate the name of every constituent who sends him a petition. Other senators content themselves with presenting petitions in an indefinite bunch, and in this impersonal fashion they are noted in The Congressional Record. Cockrell's way is different, and when The Record appears there are the names of his constituents, looking very large. Forthwith to each person thus distinguished goes a copy of The Record, which is shown with much pride at the country store or postoffice, and the voter is a friend of Cockrell for life.

A Valuable Face.

Jewett—Cutter has a terribly cadaverous appearance. He is not possessed of what would be classed a full countenance.

Morton—On the contrary, his is a regular hatchet face. But then he isn't ashamed of that. He rather prides himself upon it and for good reason. A lasso was thrown over his head by a cowboy out on the plains, but his face was so sharp that it cut the rope and so saved his life.
